Mon père, l'ours polaire

I'll Be Your Polar Bear

From four-time Grammy nominee Justin Roberts comes a heartfelt picture book about the lengths a father will go to in order to comfort and protect his child.

*Because you and I,
we're two of a pair:
you're my everything,
and I'm your polar bear.*

On a wintry walk in the twilight, a father and child's antics come to resemble those of playful polar bears. As they tumble through the snow, explore icy caves, and push against the wind, Dad is a constant source of reassurance, comfort, and even a cozy ride home.

Tender illustrations and delicate verse create a playful and warm book that will help parents show their children that even through ups and downs, they will always be there.

JUSTIN ROBERTS has been called "the Judy Blume of Kiddie Rock" by The New York Times, and USA Today says he's "Hands down the best songwriter in the genre." He has also been praised for his deft and heartfelt lyrics by Entertainment Weekly, NPR, People Magazine, and the Los Angeles Times. He is also the author of The Smallest Girl in the Smallest Grade, illustrated by Christian Robinson. Justin lives near Chicago with his family.

CHUCK GROENINK is the illustrator of many picture books, including William's Winter Nap / A Cozy Good Night by Linda Ashman, The Friend Ship by Kat Yeh, and Hank's Big Day: The Story of a Bug by Evan Kuhlman.

★ PRAISE

"Tender rhymes communicate a caregiver's bear-size love in this wintry picture book."

La leçon de patin

Wibble Wobble BOOM!

Today's my first ice skating class. I'll fly through the air, land on one foot, and spin so fast you can't see me!

Claire can't wait to get out on the ice and skate, skate, skate! She's going to jump, leap, and twirl! Just you wait — pretty soon she'll be on TV and dazzling audiences everywhere. But when Claire and her mom arrive at the ice centre for Claire's very first skating lesson, it's not everything Claire was dreaming it would be. Beginners wear ugly brown skates, and who wants to practice marching in place when you can get right to it? But not so fast, Claire! One overeager foot on the ice, and...

Wibble.

Wobble —

BOOM!

In this humorous tale of expectation meets reality, Claire discovers beautiful performances require lots of skill, and it's going to take many small failures and perseverance if she wants to skate like a pro.

MARY ANN RODMAN holds a Masters in Library and Information Science from the University of Tennessee-Knoxville and an MFA in writing for children and young adults from Vermont College of Fine Arts. A former school media specialist, she is also the author of A Tree for Emmy and First Grade Stinks!. She has received both the Ezra Jack Keats Award for Outstanding New Picture Book Writer and the Charlotte Zolotow Award.

HOLLY STERLING is a freelance children's illustrator and designer. She has earned a First Class Honours Degree in illustration and design from the University of Sunderland and received an MFA with Distinction from Edinburgh College of Art. She teaches as an illustration lecturer at the University of Sunderland.

★ PRAISE

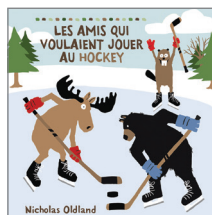

“It is hard not to be charmed by this simple tale of a novice ice-skater's first lesson.... The illustrations are just as charming as the text. Sterling captures both Claire's emotions and the movement of the skaters in her cheerful artwork....perfect for nervous newbies at just about anything.”

~ Booklist, starred review

“Any kid who has expected to be an expert at something right away only to find out it's hard work can likely relate to Claire's struggle.”

Voici Clara Hughes

Meet Clara Hughes

Meet Clara Hughes — athlete, Olympic medalist and mental health advocate.

Clara is still the only person in the world to ever win multiple medals at both the Summer Olympics and the Winter Olympics. But perhaps her biggest accomplishment is the work she has done to help others.

Growing up in Winnipeg, Clara liked sports. She wasn't a top athlete and was headed down a bad path until the fateful day she watched speed skater Gaétan Boucher compete at the 1988 Winter Games. Clara decided she would do that too.

It was to be a life-changing decision, one that set her on a course of training, competing and winning at the Olympic level in not just one but TWO sports. But as the world was cheering her on, Clara didn't feel right inside. She finally realized that winning all the medals in the world wouldn't make her okay — she had to work as hard on her mental health as she did on her training. Maybe even harder.

Young readers will get the inside story of Clara Hughes's inspiring life and how she learned to not only take care of herself, but to inspire others to do the same.

ELIZABETH MACLEOD is the author of many non-fiction titles, including the Canada Close Up series titles Canadian Government, Canada's Trees, and Canadian Money in addition to the award-winning Biographie en images series and Canada Year-By-Year. She lives in Toronto, Ontario and enjoys reading, swimming, theatre, botany, and tap dancing.

MIKE DEAS is the illustrator of the Sueño Bay Adventures series, the Graphic Guide Adventure series, and the Tank and Fizz series. His love for illustrative storytelling comes from an early love of reading and drawing while growing up on Saltspring Island, British Columbia.

Fais dodo, petit agneau!

Sleepy Sheepy

From critically acclaimed author Lucy Ruth Cummins and Pete Oswald, New York Times bestselling illustrator of La mauvaise graine, comes a rhyming bedtime tale featuring Sleepy Sheepy, a sheep with no intention of going to sleep!

*Sleepy Sheepy was not sleepy
But it was time for bed
(At least, that's what the clock said.)
But Sleepy Sheepy would not sleep.
He was wired. And absolutely not tired!
In fact, he was WIDE-AWAKE.*

Despite his name, Sleepy Sheepy is NOT sleepy. He'd much rather build with blocks or knit socks than go to sleep. Will Ma and Pa Sheepy ever get their sheepy to go to sleepy?

Fais dodo, petit agneau! is a hilarious bedtime read-aloud that will appeal to little lambs everywhere.

Les rhinos ne pleurent pas

Rhino's Don't Cry

*Milo's a rhino.

 He likes writing and climbing

 and mountain bike riding,
 he paints and he sings.*

Milo just loves being a rhino — but there's one small problem... rhinos don't cry.

At least that's what Rocco Barri, his movie-star hero, always says. But when Milo meets his idol face to face, he finds out that not only is crying okay, it's also very brave!

NEW SERIES

La saga Misewa
The Misewa Saga

Narnia meets traditional Indigenous stories of the sky and constellations in this epic middle-grade fantasy series from award-winning author David A. Robertson.

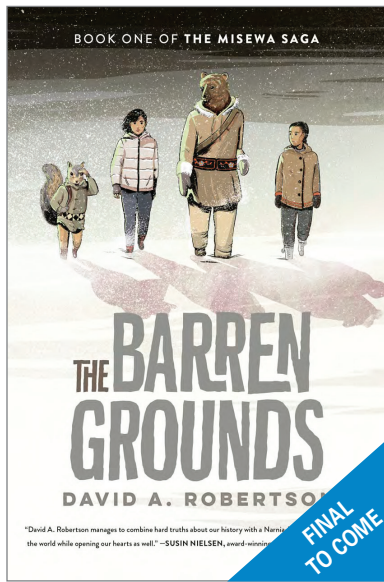

N° 1 - Les terres isolées

#1: The Barren Grounds

Morgan and Eli, two Indigenous children forced away from their families and communities, are brought together in a foster home in Winnipeg, Manitoba. They each feel disconnected, from their culture and each other, and struggle to fit in at school and at their new home — until they find a secret place, walled off in an unfinished attic bedroom.

A portal opens to another reality, Askí, bringing them onto frozen, barren grounds, where they meet Ochek (Fisher). The only hunter supporting his starving community, Misewa, Ochek welcomes the human children, teaching them traditional ways to survive. But as the need for food becomes desperate, they embark on a dangerous mission. Accompanied by Arik, a sassy squirrel they catch stealing from the trapline, they try to save Misewa before the icy grip of winter freezes everything — including them.

DAVID A. ROBERTSON is the author of numerous books for young readers, including the Governor General Literary Award–winning picture book Ligne de trappe. The first two books in David's bestselling middle-grade fantasy series, The Misewa Saga, have received great acclaim and award attention. A sought-after speaker and educator, David is a member of Norway House Cree Nation and lives in Winnipeg, Manitoba.

Louveteaux au clair de lune

Full Moon Pups

This lyrical, gorgeously illustrated picture book in verse follows a litter of baby wolf pups in the wild through their first full lunar cycle.

Deep in the forest, Mama Wolf gives birth to an adorable litter of pups under a sky full of moon. Over the next month, the pups will open their eyes, stretch out their tiny paws, and playfully explore the world around them — all under the watchful eyes of Mama Wolf and the rest of the pack. And before long, these pups will be big enough to yip at the full moon themselves!

With stunning artwork and a gently rhyming text full of fascinating wolf facts, this ideal bedtime or storytime read is perfect for anyone who has ever heard the call of the wild.

LIZ GARTON SCANLON is the author of numerous beloved picture books, including the Caldecott Honor book All the World; Kate, Who Tamed the Wind; and Another Way to Climb a Tree.

CHUCK GROENINK is the illustrator of many picture books, including William's Winter Nap / A Cozy Good Night by Linda Ashman, The Friend Ship by Kat Yeh, and Hank's Big Day: The Story of a Bug by Evan Kuhlman.

★ PRAISE

“Irresistibly adorable.”

~ Kirkus Reviews, starred review

“The lightly fictionalized narrative introduces children to the wolves and the phases of the moon, which goes through one complete cycle as the story progresses... The illustrations effectively showcase both the wolves and the moon, while the rhythmic, rhyming verses include just enough information about the pups to interest young children.”

Vingt questions

Twenty Questions

Award-winning creators Mac Barnett and Christian Robinson tap deep into childhood curiosity with a mind-tickling ode to the open-ended.

Not all questions have answers. Some have more than one answer. And others have endless answers, unfolding out to the edges of the world. In this spare yet expansive narrative, acclaimed author Mac Barnett poses twenty questions both playful and profound. Some make us giggle. Others challenge our assumptions. The result is a quirky, wandering exploration of where the best questions lead — to stories.

Intriguing, richly interactive, and brought to vivid life by Caldecott Honor recipient Christian Robinson's bright and whimsical illustrations, Vingt questions is a charming invitation to speculate without limits and know no bounds.

MAC BARNETT is the author of several books for children, including Carré; Triangle; Cercle; Extra doux, a Caldecott Honor Book and winner of a Boston Globe–Horn Book Award; Le loup, le canard et la souris, a New York Times bestseller; and Max et Sam creusent, creusent, creusent..., a Caldecott Honor Book and winner of the E.B. White Read Aloud Award, all in legendary partnership with illustrator Jon Klassen. Mac has also written Parce que and The Important Thing About Margaret Wise Brown. He is the co-author, with Jory John, of the New York Times bestselling series The Terrible Two. Mac lives in California.

CHRISTIAN ROBINSON is the best-selling illustrator of several books for children, including Last Stop on Market Street by Matt de la Peña, which was named a Caldecott Honor Book and a Coretta Scott King Illustrator Honor Book; Leo: A Ghost Story by Mac Barnett; Josephine: The Dazzling Life of Josephine Baker by Patricia Hruby Powell, a Robert F. Sibert Honor Book; The Bench by Meghan, the Duchess of Sussex; and Nina: A Story of Nina Simone by Traci N. Todd, a Coretta Scott King Illustrator Honor Book. Christian Robinson lives in California.

★ PRAISE

“This unconventional picture book will be a hit in storytimes and for one-on-one sharing, as the responses will probably change whenever the book is read. Barnett and Robinson are both superstars in their own right. Together, and with a book that's built for rereading, this won't stay on shelves for long.”

Belle comme toi, belle comme moi

Beautiful You, Beautiful Me

A child who looks different from her mother finds beauty and belonging in this new book from the creator of the New York Times bestseller I Sang You Down from the Stars.

Izzy's favorite place to be is in Mama's arms — skin to skin, safe and warm. One night, cuddled up on Mama's lap, Izzy notices something she's never noticed before: her skin is the color of chocolate, but Mama's skin is the color of sand.

When Izzy realizes she's different from Mama in other ways, too, she feels sad and confused. She wants to be beautiful like Mama! But Mama addresses Izzy's disappointment with a gentle, loving refrain: You're part of me, and I'm part of you. I'm beautiful like me, and you're beautiful like you. Finding lessons from nature and repeating her affirming message, Mama encourages Izzy to see her own unique beauty.

This story about a multiracial child navigating identity and belonging draws from author Tasha Spillett-Sumner's own experience growing up as an Afro-Indigenous girl. Lyrical text and warm, lively illustrations show Izzy's journey as she learns to celebrate the differences that make her uniquely beautiful, and the connection to her mother that transcends physical traits.

TASHA SPILLETT-SUMNER is an Inninewak (Cree) and Trinidadian award-winning poet and author who is also working on her doctoral degree in Indigenous land-based education. She makes her home in Treaty 1 territory, Manitoba, where she raises her daughter, Isabella, with her husband. She is the author of the New York Times best-selling picture book I Sang You Down from the Stars and the award-winning Surviving the City graphic novel series.

SALINI PERERA has been making art for as long as she can remember — and making art for picture books is a lifelong dream come true. She was born in Sri Lanka and now lives in Toronto, Ontario with her husband and their three cats, Victoria, Albert, and Alice.

À toutes les mamans

All Moms

Moms are amazing! The care, support, and love they give make us stronger, smarter, kinder, and happier. Every mom is unique and special, so celebrate them with this beautiful picture book written by the married team of Sarah Kate Ellis, president and CEO of GLAAD, and musician Kristen Ellis-Henderson.

À toutes les mamans is a love letter to mommies. Moms make us laugh. Moms read us stories. Moms snuggle us when we're sad, and help us grow. Some moms are silly, some are sporty or crafty, but all moms are incredible. Moms can do anything!

Created in partnership with GLAAD, this inclusive picture book features and celebrates all different types of moms and the amazing things they do.

SARAH KATE ELLIS is the president and CEO of GLAAD, the leading LGBTQIA2S+ media advocacy group in the United States. As a proud lesbian mother of twins, Kristen is passionate about expanding images of LGBTQIA2S+ families in media.

The first gift MAX RAMBALDI remembers receiving was a yellow pencil and a stack of plain paper. She grew up in Italy, filling blank spaces with her brush strokes. She believes that the world deserves more colors and shades.

Festin de nuit

Night Lunch

A delectable picture book about midnight snacks, nocturnal creatures, and unexpected generosity, inspired by lunch carts that were the predecessors of today's food trucks and diners.

Noses sniff the air as mouthwatering smells waft down city streets, luring growling bellies to the Night Owl. Inside this elegant, horse-drawn establishment, a feathery cook works the grill, serving up tasty dishes for shift-workers and operagoers alike. Mouse, a poor street sweeper, watches as the line of customers swells, ever hopeful that someone will drop a morsel of food — but Owl's cooking is far too delicious for more than a crumb to be found. As the evening's service winds down, weary Owl spots trembling Mouse. Has he found his own night lunch, or will he invite this small sweeper inside for a midnight feast for two?

From the imagination of two acclaimed picture book creators, together for the first time, this dreamlike picture book is a magical ode to Victorian lunch wagons. Evoking the sounds, sights, smells, and tastes of the city at night, Festin de nuit reveals how empathy and kindness as well as dignity and gratitude can be found — and savoured — in the most unexpected places.

ERIC FAN is an artist and writer who lives in Toronto. He attended the Ontario College of Art and Design where he studied illustration, sculpture, and film. He has a passion for vintage bikes, clockwork contraptions, and impossible dreams. His widely-praised debut picture book, Le jardinier de la nuit, was a collaboration with his brother Terry.

DENA SEIFERLING is a highly acclaimed picture book author and illustrator and needle-felt artist who graduated with a B.F.A. and Visual Communications Degree from the Alberta University of the Arts, where she now works as an instructor. She is the illustrator of King Mouse, which was a finalist for the Governor General's Literary Award, and its companion book Bear Wants to Sing. The Language of Flowers marked her exquisite debut as both author and illustrator.

★ PRAISE

“[A] sweet and satisfying fantastical glimpse into what animals might be doing while humans sleep.... This creative and fun story should encourage children to imagine their own nighttime feasts.”

The Fairy Garden

Follow the enchanting, beautifully illustrated story of Mimi, a young girl who longs to see fairies in her garden.

Mimi was a perfectly ordinary girl who lived in a perfectly ordinary house. She had toys to play with, a little brother who wasn't too annoying, and cakes on her birthdays. Mimi didn't want many things. But there was one thing she wanted so very much, so very much indeed... to see a fairy in her garden.

Poor Mimi spends hours and hours making her fairy garden completely perfect, but the fairies never come. Whatever could she be doing wrong?

Just when she has given up all hope, some twinkling lights appear. They're here! And they are bringing an important message: the importance of preserving natural environments as they are.

With captivating artwork from Isabella Mazzanti and activity spreads at the back which tell readers how to create their own perfect fairy garden, this beautiful story will capture readers' imaginations.

And, just maybe, it will help them attract fairies to their own gardens!

An original middle-grade graphic novel series starring Miles Morales, by bestselling author Justin A. Reynolds and Eisner nominee Pablo Leon!

Miles Morales : Monde figé

Miles Morales: Stranger Tides

Join Miles Morales in his most epic adventure yet!

Miles Morales has just about gotten used to this being Spider-Man thing. Keeping Brooklyn safe, taking down bad guys, and finishing his homework — he's got this! But when Spider-Man is invited to a launch for a brand-new video game, things go sideways fast. Anyone who plays the game is frozen, and it's all because of a villain named the Stranger. He's judged humanity and found it lacking, and his idea of justice is extreme.

Left with the fate of the world in his hands, and the clock is ticking on Miles. Can he turn old foes to friends and find the answers he needs in time?
