Benjamin, au rythme du tonnerre

Benjamin's Thunderstorm

Benjamin loves the rain. He loves splashing through puddles in his bright yellow rain boots and watching the colours of a rainbow in the water as they ripple around his feet. But most of all, Benjamin loves thunder. To him, thunder — piyêsiwak — sounds like his grandfather's drum. It calls to him, like the songs his grandfather plays while his father and other powwow dancers spin and step in time to the drumbeat. As Benjamin hears the thunder rumble overhead, he imagines himself as a powwow dancer. He spins, he taps his feet and he lifts his knees. Faster and faster he twirls, delighted by and filled with the rhythm of piyêsiwak.

This artfully written story from award-winning author Melanie Florence celebrates both the universal joys of playing in the rain and the connections to family traditions that centre and ground us. Elements of Cree powwow culture and Cree words for colours and weather are interwoven into the story, with a pronunciation guide in the back matter. The vibrant and eye-catching art by Hawlii Pichette, inspired by the scenery of northern Ontario, adds drama to the pages.

MELANIE FLORENCE is an award-winning writer of Cree and Scottish heritage based in Toronto, Ontario. She is the author of Missing Nimâmâ, which won the 2016 TD Canadian Children's Literature Award, the 2017 Forest of Reading Golden Oak Award and was a finalist for the 2017 First Nation Communities READ award. Her picture book Les mots volés won the Ruth and Sylvia Schwartz Children's Book Award and was a finalist for the Marilyn Baillie Picture Book Award. Her other books include Righting Canada's Wrongs: Residential Schools and the teen novels Just Lucky, He Who Dreams, The Missing, One Night, and Rez Runaway. She also co-wrote Autumn Bird and the Runaway with Richard Scrimger.

Animorphs La bande dessinée : N° 4 - Le message

Animorphs Graphic Novel #4: The Message

The wildly popular, bestselling sci-fi series by Katherine Applegate and Michael Grant returns in a new full-colour graphic novel series, adapted by Chris Grine.

It begins with the dreams. Cassie has been having strange nightmares of a voice calling to her from deep beneath the ocean.

They're unsettling, but it isn't until Cassie discovers Tobias has been having dreams too — the exact same dreams, of a voice pleading for help — that she decides it's time to start listening.

When pieces of debris wash up on shore, marked with alien writing, the team realizes they may still have allies in the fight for Earth — allies who are trying to make contact. Now they just have to reach them, before time runs out.

KATHERINE APPELGATE is the author of the bestselling Animorphs series. She also wrote the Pato et Presto series. She lives with her family in California.

MICHAEL GRANT is a well-known classical scholar and the author of many books on classical mythology.

CHRIS GRINE is the creator of the Eisner Award-nominated Chickenhare and Time Shifters. He is the illustrator of Animorphs series. He's been making up stories since he was a kid, and not just to get out of trouble with his parents. Nowadays, Chris spends most of his time writing and illustrating books, drinking lots of coffee, and sleeping as little as possible. He spends his free time with his wife, playing with his kids, watching movies, and collecting action figures (but only the bad guys).

Meet Jim Egan

Meet Jim Egan — journalist and LGBTQIA2S+ activist!

Jim was born in 1921, and he had an ordinary childhood. But as he grew up, he knew he was a little different than his friends. As a young man, Jim joined the war effort and travelled the world. He discovered there were other people like himself — he was gay. Jim hadn't even known there was a word for it when he was growing up.

At that time, being identified as a member of the LGBTQIA2S+ community wasn't safe. People lost their jobs, their families, got put in jail — or worse. Hiding who they were felt safer to most. But not Jim. He picked up his pen and started to fight for his rights. This battle would lead to protection for the LGBTQIA2S+ community under the Charter of Rights and Freedoms and open the door to further equal rights, including same-sex marriage.

ELIZABETH MACLEOD is the author of many non-fiction titles, including the Canada Close Up series titles Canadian Government, Canada's Trees, and Canadian Money in addition to the award-winning Biographie en images series and Canada Year-By-Year. She lives in Toronto, Ontario and enjoys reading, swimming, theatre, botany, and tap dancing.

MIKE DEAS is the illustrator of the Sueño Bay Adventures series, the Graphic Guide Adventure series, and the Tank and Fizz series. His love for illustrative storytelling comes from an early love of reading and drawing while growing up on Saltspring Island, British Columbia.

Lizzy et son nuage

Lizzy and the Cloud

From the critically acclaimed, award-winning creators of Entre ciel et mer and Le jardinier de la nuit comes a whimsical and sweet tale of a young girl who cares for her pet cloud as it grows.

It's a little out of fashion to buy a pet cloud, but Lizzy doesn't mind. She's not looking for a big one or a fancy one, just one that's right for her. And she finds it in Milo.

Soon, she's taking Milo out on walks with her family, watering Milo right on schedule, and seeing Milo grow and grow. But what happens when her pet cloud gets too big for Lizzy to handle?

This beautifully illustrated story about caring and learning to let go will touch the hearts of all readers, young and old.

ERIC FAN is an artist and writer who lives in Toronto, Canada. He attended the Ontario College of Art and Design where he studied illustration, sculpture, and film. He has a passion for vintage bikes, clockwork contraptions, and impossible dreams. His widely praised debut picture book, Le jardinier de la nuit, was a collaboration with his brother Terry.

TERRY FAN received his formal art training at Ontario College of Art and Design in Toronto. His work is a blend of traditional and contemporary techniques, using ink or graphite mixed with digital. He spends his days (and nights) creating magical paintings, portraits, and prints. Together with his brother Eric, he wrote and illustrated the critically acclaimed picture book, Le jardinier de la nuit.

★ PRAISE

“ A dreamy story of caretaking and letting go in the surreally gorgeous picture book Lizzy et son nuage. This subtle, whimsical reflection on the caretaker relationship provides many openings for discussing growth and letting go. ”

~ Shelf Awareness

“ A girl with a pet cloud? This unusual relationship gives the Fan Brothers' Lizzy et son nuage oh-so-charming magic... Eric and Terry Fan have the ordinary/sur-reality proportions just right here, with Lizzy's down-to-earth care for her pet a balance to its meteorological mistiness. The very idea of this fantastical pair is irresistible. ”

Multi-award-winning, New York Times bestselling duo Mac Barnett and Jon Klassen conspire again on these slyly funny tales about some very sneaky shapes.

Triangle

Triangle

Meet Triangle. He is going to play a sneaky trick on his friend, Carré. Or so Triangle thinks... Partners in crime Mac Barnett and Jon Klassen will have readers wondering just who they can trust in a richly imagined world of shapes. Visually stunning and full of wry humour, here is a perfectly paced treat that could come only from the minds of two of today's most irreverent — and talented — picture book creators.

Carré

Square

This book is about Carré. Carré spends every day taking blocks from a pile below the ground to a pile above the ground. This book is also about Carré's friend Cercle. Cercle thinks Carré is an artistic genius. But is he really? Mac Barnett and Jon Klassen nudge readers toward a more well-rounded way of looking at things. Understated and striking this funny, thoughtful book emphasizes the importance of keeping your eyes — and your mind — open to wonder where others see only rubble and rocks.

Cercle

Circle

This book is about Cercle. This book is also about Cercle's friends, Triangle and Carré. Also it is about a rule that Cercle makes and how she has to rescue Triangle when he breaks that rule. With their usual pitch-perfect pacing and subtle, sharp wit, Mac Barnett and Jon Klassen come full circle in the third and final chapter of their clever Shapes Trilogy.

MAC BARNETT is the New York Times bestselling author of many picture books, including the New York Times bestseller Le loup, le canard et la souris; the Caldecott Honor Book and E.B. White Read Aloud Award-winner Max et Sam creusent, creusent, creusent...; and the Caldecott Honor Book and Boston Globe-Horn Book Award-winner Extra doux. He is also the coauthor of the bestselling Terrible Two series with Jory John. Mac lives in Oakland, California.

JON KLASSEN is an animator and Governor General's Award-winning creator of children's books. His book Ce n'est pas mon chapeau won both the American Caldecott Medal and the British Kate Greenway Medal, making Jon the first person to win both awards for the same work. Méchant Minou : Superchat (BD)

Bad Kitty: Supercat

The phenomenally successful Méchant Minou series is purr-fect for fans of Dav Pilkey's Super Chien and Ben Clanton's Les aventures de Narval et Gelato, reluctant readers, comic book fans, and cranky cats.

It's been a long time since Minou has had a play date. So, her owners decide it's about time she interacts with some friends.

But the play date takes a turn when Minou and her friend, Minou Tout-fou, don their armor and become...Superchat and Captain Fantasti-chat!

Together, they must go on a scavenger hunt across the world (their house and yard) and recover the Orbs of Destiny (some dog balls) in order to prevent the ninety-two universes from being turned into cheese by the nefarious Docteur Lagomorpe...

Will they succeed in their mission? Or will the world as we know it descend into chaos and curds?

NICK BRUEL is the author and illustrator of New York Times bestseller Boing! and the Méchant Minou series, among others. He is a freelance illustrator and cartoonist, and during his down time, he collects PEZ dispensers and grows tomatoes in the backyard. He lives in Tarrytown, New York.

La mouche dans l'aspirateur

Bug in a Vacuum

A bug flies through an open door into a house, through a bathroom, across a kitchen and bedroom, and into a living room...where its entire life changes with the switch of a button. Sucked into the void of a vacuum bag, this one little bug moves through denial, bargaining, anger, despair, and eventually acceptance — the five stages of grief — as it comes to terms with its fate. Will there be a light at the end of the tunnel? Will there be dust bunnies in the void? A funny, suspenseful, and poignant look at the travails of a bug trapped in a vacuum.

The author-illustrator MÉLANIE WATT, born in Trois-Rivières, has won prestigious awards for her work, including the Ruth and Sylvia Schwartz Children's Book Award, the Blue Spruce Award, and the Amelia Frances Howard-Gibbon Illustrator's Award, all for her series Frisson l'écureuil. She is the bestselling creative genius behind many beloved picture books for children, including the Frisson l'écureuil series, the Chester series, La mouche dans l'aspirateur, and Les aventures de Frisson.

La nouvelle

The New Girl

Instagram sensation and Tapas webcomic superstar Cassandra Calin makes her long-form debut with this funny, feel-good middle-grade graphic novel about change.

Goodbye, old life...

Lia and her family are waiting to board a flight across the Atlantic to Montreal, leaving behind family, friends, and Romania — the only home Lia has ever known. But Lia's heartache is overshadowed by the discomfort of her first period. As if things weren't difficult enough! Now Lia is thrust into a world where everything is different: her home, her language, and even her body. With so many changes happening at once, Lia struggles with schoolwork, has trouble communicating with classmates, and has no idea how to manage her unpleasant periods. Will she ever feel like herself again?

Inspired by the author's own immigration experience, La nouvelle is a comically charming story about change and acceptance.

CASSANDRA CALIN is a cartoonist and humourist best known for her semi-autobiographical webcomic series, Cassandra Comics, in which she talks about her life with curly hair, high expectations, and other daily problems. Originally from Romania, Cassandra immigrated to Canada when she was a child and later earned her BA in graphic design from L'Université du Québec à Montréal (UQAM).

Luli et le langage du thé

Luli and the Language of Tea

Though they may speak different languages, kids from all over the world come together to enjoy the shared pastime of tea in this delicious book for young readers.

When five-year-old Luli joins her new English as a Second Language class, the playroom is quiet. Luli can't speak English, and neither can anyone else. That's when she has a brilliant idea to host a tea party and bring them all together.

Luli removes her teapot, thermos, and teacups from her bag and calls out "Chá!" in her native Chinese. One by one, her classmates pipe up in recognition: in Russian, Hindi, Turkish, Persian, Arabic, Spanish, Portuguese, and Swahili. Tea is a tasty language they all know well, and it gives them a chance to share and enjoy each other's company. When all the tea is gone and it's time for dessert, Luli gets to use her favorite English word: cookie! After that, the playroom isn't so quiet.

Informed by her own experience as the child of Chinese immigrant parents, Andrea Wang makes the point that when you're looking to communicate with people, you look for a common bond.

Additional material at the back of the book explores the rich and ancient history of tea drinking across cultures all around the world and contains maps, statistics, and fascinating details that will delight young readers.

ANDREA WANG the award-winning author of Watercress, The Nian Monster and Magic Ramen: The Story of Momofuku Ando as well as the forthcoming middle-grade novel, The Many Meanings of Meilan. Andrea holds an MS in Environmental Science and an MFA in Creative Writing for Young People. She lives in Colorado with her family.

HYEWON YUM is the author and illustrator of many acclaimed books for children, including Not Little, written by Maya Myers. Her book Mom, It's My First Day of Kindergarten! received the Ezra Jack Keats New Illustrator Award. She lives in Brooklyn, New York, with her family.

★ PRAISE

"There's inclusion from the start... No one language or culture is prioritized, and no one is left out. One of the book's linguistic treats is that each language's word for tea is presented both phonetically (as it sounds when uttered out loud) and in written form, giving readers a visual taste of Mandarin, Russian, Hindi, Persian, and Arabic."

A STORY ABOUT SELF-LOVE, ACCEPTANCE AND BODY IMAGE

Grande

Big

From a New York Times bestselling and award-winning creator, this deeply moving story shares valuable lessons about fitting in, standing out, and the beauty of joyful acceptance.

The first picture book written and illustrated by award-winning creator Vashti Harrison traces a child's journey to self-love and shows the power of words to both hurt and heal. With sparse text and exquisite illustrations, this emotional exploration of being big in a world that prizes small is a tender portrayal of how you can stand out and feel invisible at the same time.

VASHTI HARRISON is the author-illustrator of the New York Times bestselling picture book Little Leaders: Bold Women in Black History. She is also the illustrator of Sulwe, Bonjour, mon étoile, and Nos boucles au naturel. Vashti earned her BA from the University of Virginia and received her MFA in Film and Video from CalArts. She is passionate about crafting beautiful stories in both the film and picture book worlds. Vashti lives in Brooklyn, New York.

★ PRAISE

“Bestselling creator Harrison has produced another classic that belongs on every child’s shelf — this is one that will nurture little ones and help them to see the beauty in themselves. ... A healing balm with the power to make the world a bit kinder.”
~ Kirkus Reviews, starred review

“This book resonates with a potential emotional impact that is immense... This inspiring and highly relatable title could be used with readers of any age to discuss topics of body image and self-love.”
~ School Library Journal, starred review

“[An] ode to big self-love... Full of important truths about adultification and anti-fat bias, Harrison’s deceptively simple telling tenderly offers the self-affirming beliefs that kids are kids in any body and that it’s okay to take up space.”

Mon nom est Kikelomo

My Name Is Cherished

My name is Kikelomo and I am cherished!

It's Kikelomo's first day of school and she is excited! But when it's time to share in her classroom circle, Kikelomo is surprised and saddened when other children make fun of her name. When Kikelomo comes home that night, her mother and father remind her how carefully they chose her name and that it means "a child who is cherished" in Yoruba, the language of her mother's family. It prompts her to think about all the times she feels cherished and who she is, held inside her loving family.

When Kikelomo returns to school the next day, she can't wait to share why calling her by her name is important, and how everyone can pronounce it if they try. With this simple act, her classmates — and teacher! — are all inspired to learn and share the stories of their names too.

Joyful, powerful and infused with love, this proudly affirming story will resonate with every child who needs to stand up for their big, beautiful name, and encourage kids and grownups from all backgrounds to think about their own unique connection to their name.

Grosses lunettes

Four Eyes

A humorous and heartwarming middle-grade graphic memoir about fitting in, facing bullies, and finding the right pair of glasses.

Sixth grade isn't as great as Rex thought it would be. He's the only kid who hasn't had a growth spurt, and the bullies won't let him forget it. His closest friend is unreliable, at best. And there's a cute girl in his class, who may or may not like him back. With so much going on, everything is a blur — including Rex's vision! So when he discovers that he needs glasses, and his family can only afford the ugliest pair in the store, any hope Rex had of fitting in goes completely out of focus.

In this true coming-of-age story, Rex has his sights set on surviving sixth grade, but now he's got to find a way to do it with glasses, no friends, and a family that just doesn't get it!

REX OGLE is the author of Free Lunch, recipient of the YALSA Award for Excellence in Non-fiction for Young Adults. His original graphic novel series, Grosses lunettes, is based on the highs and lows of his middle-school years growing up in Texas. Before becoming a full-time writer, Rex worked as an editor in New York for many years and championed a number of licensed titles, including the New York Times bestsellers Star Wars: Jedi Academy, Secret Hero Society: Study Hall of Justice, and Neil Patrick Harris's The Magic Misfits. Rex now writes full time from his home in California.

Les aventures de Rocket et Groot : Au secours de Star-Lord

Rocket and Groot Graphix Chapters #1: The Hunt for Star-Lord

Join Marvel's fan-favorites Rocket and Groot in this hilarious, high-octane original graphic novel!

Rocket and Groot are living their best lives touring the galaxy for the very best deep-dish pizza in the universe. Just as Rocket is about to bite down on a gooey slice of pizza with extra trash, an alert pops up on his bounty tracker: Star-Lord has been kidnapped and is being held for ransom!

Rocket and Groot immediately drop their 'za and jump into action. Who would want to capture Peter Quill anyway? Okay...maybe a lot of people. It's probably best to start with someone who actually likes Peter. Gamora! But when Rocket and Groot locate Gamora, she is in the middle of a battle with Thanos. Great! One more enemy to deal with...

Join the Guardians of the Galaxy in this hilarious adventure!

La saison des zombies

Zombie Season

You know the protocol. You've completed countless drills. Yet nothing can truly prepare you for what's coming. No one is ever ready for zombie season...

Joule refuses to evacuate with her mom. She can't leave town while her dad is still missing. He's out there, somewhere, and Joule is going to find him. But what if he's not just lost? What if he's become what she most fears?

Regina is proud of her scientist parents, especially now that they're working on a weapon to keep the zombies at bay. But when she discovers a dark underside to their new technology, she must decide what matters most: her family's reputation...or saving lives.

Oliver is sick of the drills. What's the point in pretending you can run and hide when it's clear the zombies are growing faster and stronger than ever? But when the adults refuse to accept this scary truth, Oliver must find a way to sound the alarm: this year's zombie season is very, very different. Something has changed, and time is running out to stop it...

La saison des zombies is JUSTIN WEINBERGER's second novel, following his debut, Reformed. Justin has also contributed to numerous television dramas, including the FX on Hulu series The Patient and FX's The Americans, for which he shared in the Writers Guild of America's award for Outstanding Writing - Drama Series. Originally from Easton, Pennsylvania, Justin makes his home in Brooklyn, New York, with his wife, Chelsea, and their dog, Penny.
