

D-Day, June 6, 1944: the most expansive military endeavour in history. No less than world cooperation would bring down Hitler and the Axis powers. From the young US soldiers in the boats, to spies in the French countryside, to kids back on the home front, the coordination of thousands came together. Alan Gratz poignantly explores the necessity of teamwork and heroism in dismantling tyranny.

BEST FOR GRADES 7 & UP
HISTORICAL FICTION

WRITTEN BY ALAN GRATZ