About This Book

Eleven-year-old twins Oliver and Celia Navel live on the 4½th floor of the Explorers Club with their father, Dr. Navel. Their mother has been missing for years since she went in search of the lost library of Alexandria. So when an explorer shows up with a clue as to where his wife could be, Dr. Navel drags Oliver and Celia to Tibet to find her.

The twins fall out of airplanes, encounter Yetis, travel through waterfalls, and end up in the Demon Fortress of the Warrior King where they just might possibly find their mother and save their father from the Poison Witches. Except, Oliver and Celia would much rather be watching television. And if their trip doesn't work out as planned, the twins could end up as slaves to Edmund S. Titheltorpe-Schmidt III, an evil explorer with breath that smells like boiled carrots. Even worse — they may never get cable!
