About This Book

*Why doesn't the sun need to go to college?
Because it already has a thousand degrees!*

All Spongebob wants to do is play with his friends, but no one is home! He's tried Sandy's treedome, Patrick's, Squidward's, the Krusty Krab, and even Mrs. Puff's driving school! But he can't seem to find anyone. Then all of a sudden, a giant spaceship rises out of the ground by the treedome that is much larger than the rocket Sandy usually uses to fly to the moon. Sandy tells Spongebob that it's not a rocket — it's a spaceship — and Sandy is going to use it to explore outer space!

Spongebob hates feeling left out and, since no one else is around, he begs Sandy to please, please, pretty please take him with her to outer space. It's going to be a long trip though! After Spongebob helps Sandy check that everything is ship-shape, they decide that the best way to pass the time is by telling jokes. Along the way, some unexpected friends are found onboard, and the hilarious jokes just keep on coming!
