

Booktalk!

Olivia and the Princess Script

For this Book Talk you will need:

- Two female volunteers
- A copy of Olivia and the Princess
- Pig noses and ears, if available
- Volunteer playing Olivia should wear red
- Volunteer playing Stephanie should dress up like a princess

Olivia: Hello! My name is Olivia.

Stephanie: And my name is Princess Stephanie of Poshtonia.

Olivia: Princess Stephanie and her family are in town visiting their vacation castle and everyone in town went to the airport to greet them!

Stephanie: We were on our way to the vacation castle when our carriage suddenly broke down! A wheel had fallen off. Poor father had no idea how to fix it, and neither did our driver!

Olivia: Luckily, my whole family was on their way to get some of the world's best ice cream — cherry chocolate chunk — and we came across the princess and her family. My dad is really good at fixing things, so he and the king worked on the carriage while the rest of us went for some yummy ice cream!

Stephanie: It was then that Olivia and I realized how much we look alike! When I accidentally spilled some ice cream on myself we went into the bathroom and came up with the best idea EVER!

Olivia: We decided to switch places for a day so I could see what it's like to be a princess...and Stephanie could see what it's like to be a normal piglet!

Stephanie: Everything was going great until our plan to switch back the next day fell apart. My family decided to leave early! Now what were we going to do?

Olivia: We were afraid that we would be stuck pretending to be each other for the rest of our lives! Want to read how this royal mess turned out? Look for Olivia the Princess at your Book Fair!
