About This Book

Allistar Hemsworth offers his audience a spectacle they will not soon forget; he makes a dragon appear before their very eyes!

In the summer of 1869 Sherlock Holmes and his friend Irene attend the theatre to watch the magician do the impossible. It is the sensation of London and everyone is talking about Hemsworth's show.

Sherlock and Irene are about to meet the famous magician when he is arrested for the murder of his rival, the Wizard of Nottingham.

There are many reasons to believe that Hemsworth committed the heinous crime. There were traces of his rival's blood in his secret studio. Not only is there evidence, but there are strong motives associated with the crime, the magicians are enemies and everyone knows the Wizard of Nottingham stole Hemsworth's wife away from him! Sherlock seems to think that there is more to this case so he sets out to solve the mystery and bring the real murderer to justice! It will prove to be his deadliest case yet.
