

Booktalk!

TITANIC

Voices from the Disaster

Written by Deborah Hopkinson

304 pages

Blue Case/Mystery & Adventure

April 2012
is the 100th Anniversary of the sinking of Titanic

About This Book

Thrilling.

Haunting.

Unforgettable.

The story of the maiden voyage of the Titanic is filled with heart-stopping action, devastating drama, and fascinating details of history. Titanic: Voices from the Disaster gives first-hand accounts of what it was really like on the once-majestic ship that fatal night. From its launch in Belfast to its cataclysmic end, the story weaves together the voices and stories of actual Titanic survivors and witnesses to the disaster. Retold through many archival photographs, quotes and letters from actual survivors.

Step aboard and re-live the terror and the chaos, through the eyes of each survivor. Their courage and determination will stay with you forever.

Tips, Scripts and More...

Deborah Hopkinson is the author of over 40 stories for young readers including short fiction, nonfiction, and picture books. She loves to bring history alive for young readers.

Go to www.scholastic.ca/bookfairs/booktalkinabox for great ideas on how to give a successful Book Talk!