It was a bright, cheerful morning in Ninjago City. The citizens of the seaside capital were busy repairing buildings and working together to rebuild their city. They had just suffered yet another attack by the evil warlord, Lord Garmadon.

“Gooooood morning, Ninjago!” the people sang happily as they worked. “I said, good morning, Ninjago! Oh, everybody have a ninja day!”

Even though rebuilding the city brick by brick was difficult — and thinking about Garmadon was always terrifying — Ninjago’s residents were smiling and friendly as they went about their work. “Oh, everybody have a ninja day!”

While it was true that a menacing warlord with glowing red eyes and four arms attacked their city a few times each week, the people of Ninjago City had plenty to be happy about. Because they had a Secret Ninja Force that was always ready to keep them safe from danger. Every time Lord Garmadon tried to conquer the city, the Secret Ninja Force managed to chase him away, along with his army of Sharkmen.

All around Ninjago City, people pitched in with the reconstruction process in whatever way they could. All the while, they sang and shared stories.

*We traveled from cities from miles around,
'Cause all our cities burned to the ground.
We came to Ninjago and built this town . . .*

The work and singing stopped for a moment as footage of Garmadon's latest attack flashed across a giant Jumbotron in the center of the city. But soon, the people were back at it again — working hard as they reminded one another of the danger that always lurked nearby. They sang:

*You should know,
The guy from the volcano is evil Lord
Garmadon!
Conquering on and on . . . GAR-MA-DON!
Knocking our city flat, but we rebuild
after that . . .
Because it's a ninja day!*
