A CITY AS BEAUTIFUL AS A FAIRY TALE!

It was a brisk winter afternoon in New Mouse City. Freshly fallen snow decorated the trees and buildings, SPARKLING in the sunlight. The streets twinkled with HOLIDAY lights, making my city look as beautiful as a fairy tale!

Oh, I forgot to introduce myself! My name is Stilton, Geronimo Stilton, and I run The Rodent's Gazette, the most famous NEWSPAPER on Mouse Island!

The snow is beautiful!

The ice skating rink in New Mouse City was frozen solid, so my nephew Benjamin and my niece Trappy asked me to take them. I agreed, of course, but I made sure to bundle up against the cold.

This is what I wore:

- a heavy jacket . . .
- a wool shirt and a fleece shirt . . .
- wool long johns . . .
- thermal tights . . .
- a pair of super-insulated pants . . .
- four pairs of socks . . .
- four pairs of gloves . . .
- a knitted cover for my tail . . .
- a wool beanie . . .
- a cheddar-yellow scarf . . .
- a pair of very warm snow boots . . .
- earmuffs made of fake fur . . .

I had so much CLOTHING on that I couldn't move a whisker! So I unpeeled some layers and headed out with the mouselets. We took the subway to get to the skating pond. During the trip, Trappy pulled on my sleeve.

“Uncle G, after we skate, can we get a hot chocolate?” she asked.

Benjamin pulled on my other sleeve. “Uncle G, will you take our picture while we skate?”

We left the subway station and entered the enormous city park. As we approached the Skating Pond, we saw a building with a sign that read, Ice Skate Rentals.

I rented skates for Benjamin and Trappy.
“Have fun skating,” said the rodent at the counter. “Now that the Mouse Island Ice Skating Championships are coming up, everyone is excited about the sport!” he said.

We walked over to the pond. Mice were having fun all over the park. Some were sledding down a snowy hill. Others were building a snowmouse. And a group of mice were singing Christmas carols.

Trappy sat down on a bench and put on her skates.

“Benjamin, bet I can skate faster than you!” she squeaked.

“Maybe, but I can spin better!” he replied.
