Archie le paresseux hyperactif

Archie – No Ordinary Sloth

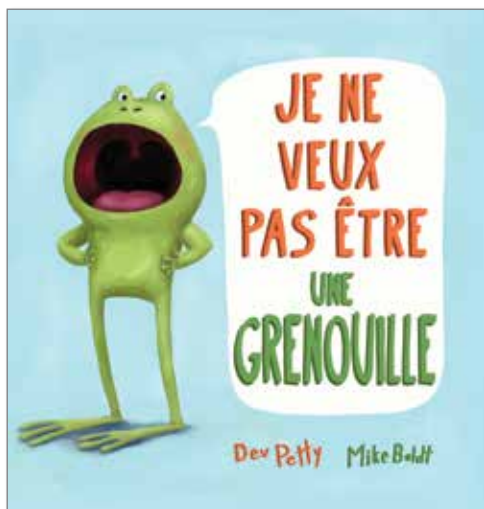

Archie is an energetic sloth that loves to leap, swing, and dance about! However, the other sloths grow tired of his antics and ask him to leave. Longing to be understood, Archie sets off to meet new friends who are also different in their own special ways. But Archie still misses his sloth friends.

Acting on some sage advice from an elephant, Archie returns home to find his friends in danger. Will his fast-thinking and fast-action ways save them? Will they ever accept him for who he is?

HEATH MCKENZIE is a Melbourne-based artist who has worked with many publishers and production companies. Heath is generally inspired by too much television, too many movies and music (lots of music). He is specifically inspired by movie posters, 50s and 60s commercial art, Japanese signs and cartoons (anything animated, really).

Je ne veux pas être une grenouille

I Don't Want to Be a Frog

Frog wants to be anything but a slimy, wet frog. A cat, perhaps. Or a rabbit. An owl? But when a hungry wolf arrives — a wolf who HATES eating frogs — our hero decides that maybe being himself isn't so bad after all.

In this very silly story with a sly message, told in hilarious dialogue between a feisty young frog and his heard-it-all-before father, young readers will identify with little Frog's desire to be something different, while laughing along at his stubborn yet endearing schemes to prove himself right.

Fans of Jon Klassen's Rendez-moi mon chapeau! will love meeting this willful young frog with a serious identity crisis.

DEV PETTY previously worked as a visual-effects artist in film, contributing to such movies as the Matrix Trilogy. She lives in Albany, California.

MIKE BOLDT is an author and illustrator living in the countryside of Alberta, Canada. He has been illustrating for children for the past 15 years. His most recent picture book with Scholastic Canada is the wildly fun picture book Les cancons du canard.

★ REVIEWS

“ First-time author Petty's dialogue between a frog father and his son makes its point about accepting one's nature with a big grin... The story might create similar gratitude in the minds of readers — or it might just make them giggle. ”

Picture Day Perfection

It's picture day, and the boy at the center of this charming picture book wants to make sure his picture is perfect. It seems as though everything's going wrong for him — he has bedhead, a stained shirt, and a big scowl on his face. But when he goes up for his picture, he thinks about his terrible appearance, and he smiles — because he secretly wants his picture to be the worst ever taken! But just as he smiles, the photo is snapped and his plan is ruined — the photo looks great.

Le yoga c'est pour moi

I Am Yoga

An eagle soaring among the clouds or a star twinkling in the night sky ... a camel in the desert or a boat sailing across the sea — yoga has the power of transformation. Not only does it strengthen bodies and calm minds, but with a little imagination, it can show us that anything is possible.

Le yoga c'est pour moi encourages children to explore the world of yoga and make room in their hearts for the world beyond it. A kid-friendly guide to 16 yoga poses is included.

SUSAN VERDE is the author of The Museum and You and Me, also illustrated by Peter H. Reynolds. She is a licensed yoga instructor and lives in New York.

PETER H. REYNOLDS is the illustrator behind the bestselling Judy Moody and Stink series. He lives near Boston, Massachusetts.

Qu'est-ce que la paix?

What Is Peace?

Peace is a familiar word, its meaning both simple and complex. Here, Wallace Edwards explores peace, and invites young readers to think about what that means to them. In a series of linked questions and combined with Edwards' singular art, the concept of peace is picked up, shaken, turned all around, and carefully examined from every angle. The impact is engaging, delightful, thoughtful, and powerful — in the perfect blend of whimsy and sophistication for which Edwards is known — and it allows young readers to enter into this discussion with openness and a sense that there is no one answer and certainly no wrong answer.

WALLACE EDWARDS, is a graduate of OCA whose picture books have been nominated for three Governor General's Literary Awards; he won the award for Alphabeasts. Other honours include the Amelia Frances Howard-Gibbon Award, two Independent Publisher Book Awards, a Canadian Toy Testing Council Great Book Award, a CLA Honour Book, two OLA Best Bets and his work was added to the International Youth Library White Ravens list, among many others. Wallace lives in Yarker, Ontario.

La vie de mon quartier : Un regard sur ma communauté

Look Where We Live!

In this engaging non-fiction picture book, five young friends spend the day traveling around their neighbourhood and participating in activities designed to raise money for their local library. Along the way, they learn about the people and places that make up their community and what it means to be a part of one.

Each spread features a different location, detailed in a bright, busy illustration that expands on its connections to the community. Author and illustrator Scot Ritchie has created a rich resource for social studies lessons on places, roles and jobs within a community, and what it takes to be a responsible citizen. There is also potential for broader classroom discussions, including the economy of a community, geography and mapping, and how the concepts of cooperation, responsibility and teamwork apply. The author has also included step-by-step instructions for a puzzle-making project.

SCOT RITCHIE is an award winning illustrator who lives in Vancouver British Columbia. He has illustrated over 40 children's books, (some of which he also wrote) including Let's Go! The Story of Getting from There to Here, Up, Up and Away and the Basics for Beginners series, Hockey, Baseball and Soccer.

Plus noir que la nuit

The Darkest Dark

Inspired by the childhood of real-life astronaut Chris Hadfield and brought to life by Terry and Eric Fan's lush, evocative illustrations, Plus noir que la nuit will encourage readers to dream the impossible.

Chris loves rockets and planets and pretending he's a brave astronaut, exploring the universe. Only one problem — at night, Chris doesn't feel so brave. He's afraid of the dark.

But when he watches the groundbreaking moon landing on TV, he realizes that space is the darkest dark there is — and the dark is beautiful and exciting, especially when you have big dreams to keep you company.

CHRIS HADFIELD is one of the world's most seasoned and accomplished astronauts, and is the author of the #1 international bestseller, An Astronaut's Guide to Life on Earth and You Are Here: Around the World in 92 Minutes. The top graduate of the U.S. Air Force Test Pilot School in 1988 and U.S. Navy test pilot of the year in 1991, Hadfield was selected by the Canadian Space Agency to be an astronaut in 1992. Hadfield most recently served as Commander of the International Space Station where, while conducting a record-setting number of scientific experiments and overseeing an emergency spacewalk, he gained worldwide acclaim for his breathtaking photographs and educational videos about life in space. His music video, a zero-gravity version of David Bowie's "Space Oddity," has received more than 30 million views online.

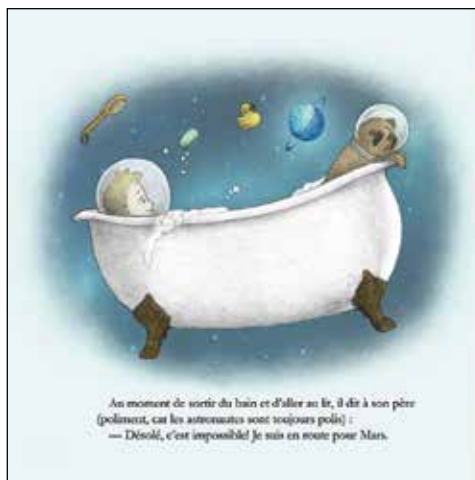

TERRY AND ERIC FAN, also known as the Fan Brothers, received their formal art training at the Ontario College of Art and Design in Toronto. Their work is a blend of traditional and contemporary techniques, using ink or graphite mixed with digital. The Night Gardener is their critically acclaimed debut picture book.

Une mitaine pour deux

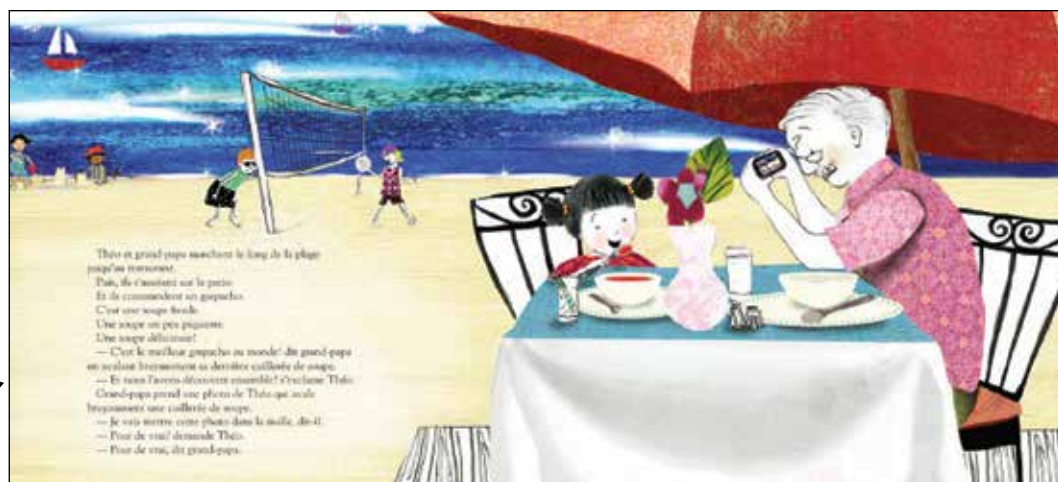

Mittens to Share

The wonder of the winter season is brought to vivid life in this deceptively simple tale of a young girl who loses her mitten on a cool, snowy day. Her disappointment is soon swept away when she's back indoors looking for a new pair, exploring the colours and textures of an overstuffed box of family mittens. Outside again with Dad, she makes an even more endearing discovery that will warm the hearts of all readers.

The spare, poetic text allows the gorgeous mixed-media artwork by award-winning illustrator Irene Luxbacher to tell a deeper story about warmth, sharing and discovery on a crisp winter day.

EMIL SHER writes professionally in a variety of genres for all ages, from stage plays to screenplays, non-fiction and children's fiction. He adapted the bestselling Hana's Suitcase for stage as well as Ian Brown's memoir The Boy in the Moon. Ma vie de grand et parfait génie incompris

A Year in the Life of a Total and Complete Genius

Arthur Bean, soon-to-be a rich and famous author, has set two goals for himself: to win the school writing contest and to win the heart of his secret crush, Kennedy. But his life has had some major twists and turns lately, and the recent loss of his mother definitely complicates things.

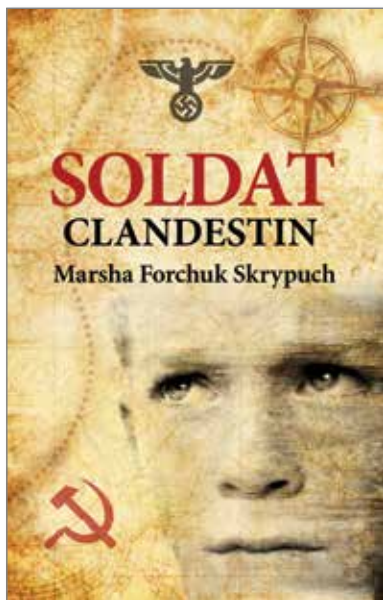

Arthur is in turns outrageous, defiant, and unintentionally hilarious as we peek over his shoulder at his journals, notes from his long-suffering teachers, his offbeat articles for the school newspaper — even the emails he sends to his writing partner Kennedy. Ma vie de grand et parfait génie incompris is a fresh and funny story about a boy whose bad luck can't dampen his spirit — or his love of writing.

STACEY MATSON has worked in a theatre program on Parliament Hill and written theatre pieces for the Glenbow Museum and for the All-Nations Theatre in Calgary. She recently completed her Master of Arts in Children's Literature at the University of British Columbia. This is her first novel in a planned trilogy. Stacey lives in Vancouver, BC.

★ REVIEWS

Ce livre ne fonctionne pas!

This Book is Out of Control!

In this follow-up to Ce livre a mangé mon chien and Ce livre n'est pas le bon!, Bella and Ben and that adorable dog are back for another (mis)adventure.

Ben has a new remote-controlled toy; it has all kinds of buttons Up, Down, Siren, Spin. He and Bella try pressing each one, but the remote doesn't seem to be working . . . at least, not on the toy. As things go haywire on the page, Bella and Ben realize their book is out of control! With a remote on the fritz, it'll take the help of the reader to put things right in this interactive story.

RICHARD BYRNE is the author and illustrator of the Oxfordshire Book Award-winner The Really, Really, Really Big Dinosaur. He grew up in Brighton and learned to colour at Eastbourne. He worked in graphic design before discovering his true passion in children's books.

★ REVIEWS: CE LIVRE A MANGÉ MON CHIEN!

“ It's quick, fizzy entertainment, good as a waiting-room read or an addition to the bedtime pile. ”

C'est prêt, M. Panda?

I'll Wait Mr. Panda

Mr. Panda from Steve Antony's bestselling, funny manners book S'il vous plaît, M. Panda is back!

This time, Mr. Panda's animal friends are curious to know what he's making, but only one of them has the patience to stick around. An alpaca, an aardvark, a bird, and a pack of rabbits all wind up missing out. It's the penguin who declares, "I'll wait, Mr. Panda." The penguin is then rewarded with a big SURPRISE: a giant doughnut!

C'est prêt, M. Panda is a graphic, kid-friendly way of teaching the value of patience and the importance of saying "thank you."

STEVE ANTONY is the popular author and illustrator of S'il vous plaît, M. Panda, The Queen's Hat, Les lézards verts contre les rectangles rouges, and Betty Goes Bananas. The Queen's Hat was nominated for the Kate Greenaway Medal in the UK. Steve lives in Swindon, England.

We Found a Hat

Fans of Rendez-moi mon chapeau! and Ce n'est pas mon chapeau will not be surprised to learn that there's a healthy dose of controversy between the characters of Klassen's latest picture book, in which two turtles find one hat — and it happens to look great on both of them.

JON KLASSEN is the author-illustrator of Rendez-moi mon chapeau! a Theodor Seuss Geisel Honor book, Ce n'est pas mon chapeau, winner of the Caldecott Medal, and Max et Sam creusent, creusent, creusent..., a 2015 Caldecott Honor Book. Originally from Niagara Falls, Ontario, Jon Klassen now lives in Los Angeles.

★ REVIEWS: CE N'EST PAS MON CHAPEAU

~ Quill & Quire

★ REVIEWS: RENDEZ-MOI MON CHAPEAU!

“ I Want My Hat Back is a marvelous book in the true dictionary sense of marvel: it is a wonderful and astonishing thing, the kind of book that makes child laugh and adult chuckle, and both smile in appreciation. ”

But when Ricky's cousin Lucy shows up, she renames the fort a "castle" and says it needs curtains — rats!

Ghosts

Catrina and her family are moving to the coast of Northern California because her little sister, Maya, is sick. Cat isn't happy about leaving her friends for Bahía de la Luna, but Maya has cystic fibrosis and will benefit from the cool, salty air that blows in from the sea. As the girls explore their new home, a neighbour lets them in on a secret: There are ghosts in Bahía de la Luna. Maya is determined to meet one, but Cat wants nothing to do with them. As the time of year when ghosts reunite with their loved ones approaches, Cat must figure out how to put aside her fears for her sister's sake — and her own.

L'école des apprentis magiciens

N° 1 – Une classe pas comme les autres

Upside Down Magic

Nory Horace is nine years old. She's resourceful, she's brave, she likes peanut butter cookies. Also, she's able to transform into many different animals. Unfortunately, Nory's shape-shifting talent is a bit wonky. And when she flunks out of her own father's magic academy, Nory's forced to enter public school, where she meets a group of kids whose magic is, well, different.

From Canadian author Sarah Mlynowski, and authors Lauren Myracle, and Emily Jenkins, this offbeat new series chronicles the misadventures of Nory and her oddball friends, who prove that upside-down magic definitely beats right side up.

SARAH MLYNOWSKI is the author of the Whatever After series, and several acclaimed young adult novels, including the Magic in Manhattan series, and Ten Things We Did (And Probably Shouldn't Have). Originally from Montreal, Sarah now lives in the kingdom of Manhattan with her very own prince charming and their fairy tale-loving daughters.

LAUREN MYRACLE is the author of many popular books for teens and tweens, including the New York Times bestsellers ttyl and tffn. She lives with her family in Fort Collins, Colorado.

EMILY JENKINS is the New York Times bestselling author of books for children and adults; including the chapter books Toys Go Out, Toy Dance Party, and Toys Come Home. As E. Lockhart, she's the author of The Disreputable History of Frankie Landau-Banks, a finalist for both the National Book Award and the Michael L. Printz Award, and We Were Liars.

Raymie Nightingale

Raymie Clarke has come to realize that everything, absolutely everything, depends on her. And she has a plan. If Raymie can win the Little Miss Central Florida Tire competition, then her father, who left town two days ago with a dental hygienist, will see Raymie's picture in the paper and (maybe) come home. To win, not only does Raymie have to do good deeds and learn how to twirl a baton; she also has to contend with the wispy, frequently fainting Louisiana Elefante, who has a show-business background, and the fiery, stubborn Beverly Tapinski, who's determined to sabotage the contest. But as the competition approaches, loneliness, loss, and unanswerable questions draw the three girls into an unlikely friendship — and challenge each of them to come to the rescue in unexpected ways.

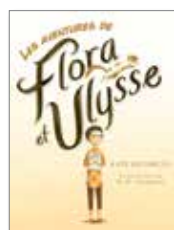

KATE DICAMILLO is one of America's most beloved storytellers. She is the National Ambassador for Young People's Literature and a two-time Newbery Medalist. Born in Philadelphia, she grew up in Florida and now lives in Minneapolis, where she faithfully writes two pages a day, five days a week.

★ REVIEWS

“ As in her previous award-winning books, DiCamillo once again shows that life's underlying sadnesses can also be studded with hope and humour, and does it in a way so true that children will understand it in their bones. And that's why she's Kate the Great. ”

N° 6 - La chute

#6 - Rise and Fall

Deep in the desert there sits a beautiful oasis, ruled by a monarch unlike any other in Erdas. His name is Cabaro, the Great Lion, and he reigns over a kingdom of animals, jealously guarding his golden talisman. No human has ever set foot in the Great Beast's territory. The journey to his oasis is impossible.

As a team, Conor, Abéké, Meilin, and Rollan have achieved the impossible before. But now that team is broken — the friends scattered by a devastating betrayal.

The young heroes and their spirit animals have already sacrificed much in their quest for the talismans. But with the world crumbling all around them — and a ruthless enemy opposing their every move — their greatest sacrifices are yet to come.

ELIOT SCHREFER'S Endangered was named a finalist for the National Book Award and the winner of the Green Earth Book Award. He is also the author of Threatened, The Deadly Sister, The School for Dangerous Girls, Glamorous Disasters, and The New Kid. He lives in New York City.

Hockey Luck

It's a new season for the Glenlake Hawks. It seems everyone but Tom has a hockey superstition or good luck charm. Mark eats pizza before a game; Harty dresses in a certain order and Jordan never washes his socks. Even Dad has a superstition: not shaving when the Calgary Flames play.

Tom is in a funk because he doesn't have his old jersey, number 15, which brought him his good luck in the past. Now he wears number 5 and it is giving him bad luck, including no goals. Tom and his friends set out to find him a new good luck charm, but nothing seems to work! Is Tom stuck being unlucky? Or does luck have nothing to do with it?

I Survived

1941 : Le bombardement de Pearl Harbor

The Bombing of Pearl Harbor, 1941

Eleven-year-old Danny Crane is alone on his favourite beach in Hawaii when the world is torn apart and World War II officially hits the United States. Does he have what it takes to find his way home in the midst of the bombs, the smoke, and the destruction of the day that will live in infamy?

LAUREN TARSHIS often wonders how she came to spend most of her waking moments thinking about disasters, as the author of the children's historical fiction series Survivants. Each book takes readers into the heart of history's most thrilling and terrifying events.

ANNIVERSARY

tramways sont tordus comme des bretzels. Plus loin, des hommes tentent de rescaper un cheval qui est tombé dans un trou au beau milieu de la rue.

Léo essaie de ne pas regarder les bâtiments en ruine, mais il ne peut s'empêcher de penser aux malheureux qui sont peut-être restés prisonniers à l'intérieur.

Les incendies sont plus graves ici. Plus les garçons avancent, plus la fumée est épaisse et plus l'air est chaud. Léo commence à avoir mal aux poumons.

Ils s'apprêtent à traverser la rue Market quand une voiture de pompiers arrive à grand bruit et s'arrête devant eux. Les deux gros chevaux qui la tirent écumant de bave et de sueur. Deux pompiers descendent et déroulent un gros tuyau. Ils le fixent à une borne-fontaine, mais il n'en sort qu'un mince filet d'eau.

Un homme dont la chemise est maculée de sang se précipite vers les pompiers.

— S'il vous plaît, aidez-moi, les supplie-t-il. Tout ce que je possède est dans ma maison et le feu se dirige droit dessus.
