Friends Find a Way

Suze and Tyson first met in Amis instantanés. Their friendship has developed and so have Suze's communication skills, in both verbal and nonverbal ways. They take a school trip to the zoo. When they get separated from the group, both kids must rely on their own strengths and ways of interacting with the world to find their way back.

HEATHER M. O'CONNOR'S picture book about Suze and Tyson, Amis instantanés, won the Ruth and Sylvia Schwartz Award. It was selected for the TD Grade One Book Giveaway in 2022 and was distributed to every grade one student across Canada. Heather lives in Peterborough, Ontario.

CLAUDIA DÁVILA is the former art director of Chirp and Chickadee magazines. Claudia illustrated Amis instantanés and the multi-award-winning book Child Soldier: When Boys and Girls Are Used in War. Claudia was born in Santiago, Chile, and lives in Toronto, Ontario, with her husband and two children.

★ PRAISE

"With a play on words and a story of friendship beyond differences, Heather M. O'Connor helps children see the importance of focusing on our commonalities which connect us rather than that which might separate us."

It's up to Lauren to save her brother, but when she too falls under their spell, something stronger must pull them home.

DAVID A. ROBERTSON is the author of numerous books for young readers, including the Governor General Literary Award – winning picture books Ligne de trappe. Class Trip

Stephanie and Sam's class go on a trip to the museum where they get to watch baby chicks hatching out of their little eggs. That gets them wondering what might be hatching out of the bigger eggs nearby. They ask the museum guide to show them the biggest egg in the museum. When they find it, they see that whatever was inside has already hatched, so the two of them decide to have a little fun and hatch a scheme to prank the rest of the class.

ROBERT MUNSCH started telling stories when he was teaching in a daycare, to get the kids to settle down. Now he is Canada's number one author for young readers with more than eighty books in print, including such bestsellers as La princesse dans un sac. Every one of his stories was first told aloud to children—and each one is dedicated to the kid who inspired the story. He is a member of the Order of Canada, has a star on Canada's Walk of Fame, and is a hero to generations of young readers. In 2021, he was nominated for the prestigious international Astrid Lindgren Award. Robert lives in Guelph, Ontario.

MICHAEL MARTCHENKO was born in Carcassonne, France. He moved to Canada with his family when he was seven years old. In 1966, he graduated from the Ontario College of Art and soon became director of an advertising agency. It was during a graphic art exhibition that Robert Munsch discovered the work of Michael Martchenko.

Michael has illustrated dozens of books, and is most famous for his work with Robert Munsch. He lives in Burlington, Ontario.

Un fantôme trop mignon

A Wee Boo

This opposite of creepy ghost story will make readers laugh out loud and sympathize with a ghost who is too cute to be scary.

Mini-Bou is a ghost who wants nothing more than to earn her haunting license like all the other accredited ghosts. The problem? She's far too cute to scare anyone! She's given one last chance: Mini-Bou doesn't need to make anyone scream or gasp or shudder, she just needs one "whoa" to earn her place as a certified ghost. But she's running out of chances and her final haunting is not going well — that is until she meets a baby.

When Mini-Bou makes the baby laugh, she realizes something: although she's terrible as a scary ghost, she might just make an outstanding imaginary friend. And a baby laughing in a crib at an invisible friend might just be enough to spook someone after all — the baby's parents.

JESSICA BOYD has been a creative writer for over sixteen years. She loves writing, reading, baking delicious treats for her delightful friends, and hanging out with her wonderful daughters and husband. ★ PRAISE

“Instantly lovable... The cute ghost who is unable to scare will resonate with many little readers. When you're small and cute it's hard to be taken seriously by bigger kids and adults. But as this story proves, the goal is not to be like others — it's to find a way to be your unique self.” ~ Quill & Quire

“Readers will have no choice but to fall in love... A light and approachable ghost story that is well-suited to both classroom and home reads.”

Le crâne

The Skull

Caldecott Medalist and #1 New York Times best-selling author-illustrator Jon Klassen delivers a deliciously macabre treat for folktale fans.

In a big abandoned house, on a barren hill, lives a skull. A brave girl named Otilla has escaped from terrible danger and run away, and when she finds herself lost in the dark forest, the lonely house beckons. Her host, the skull, is afraid of something too, something that comes every night. Can Otilla save them both?

Inspired by a Tyrolean folktale and steeped in shadows and threaded with subtle wit, Le crâne is as empowering as it is mysterious and foreboding.

JON KLASSEN is the creator of the #1 New York Times best-selling Rendez-moi mon chapeau!, which won a Theodor Seuss Geisel Honor, and its companions: Ce n'est pas mon chapeau, which won a Caldecott Medal and a Kate Greenaway Medal, and Nous avons trouvé un chapeau, named a Publishers Weekly Best Children's Book of the Year. He is also the author-illustrator of Le rocher tombé du ciel and the illustrator of Les trois boucs et le troll, Triangle, Carré, Cercle, Le loup, le canard et la souris, and Max et Sam creusent, creusent, creusent all by Mac Barnett. They never leave the ground.
But I have gazed up at the sky

And they never made a sound.

J'ai vu un cochon voler is a delightful collection of slightly surprising rhymes paired with art that is brimming with humour and delight.

Maybe impossible dreams are not quite out of reach after all...

Published posthumously after his passing in 2022, this is esteemed artist and author Wallace Edwards' final ode to the beauty of life and the eclipsing power of believing in the unbelievable.

Le plus grand

I Am Big

A young Black hockey player must face the prejudice of his teammates and their parents who see him as a threat for being the biggest kid on the team. Based on his race, they find him dangerous and assume he's a bully, but he ruminates on how being big can be dangerous for a Black kid as it draws the wrong kind of attention, namely hatred and violence. The unnamed hockey player will draw inspiration from his family and Black hockey legends to show his team that he is more than his size.

This story shows kids that they should never be ashamed for taking up space, and just how damaging unchallenged prejudices can be.

ITAH SADU is a distinguished storyteller and children's author. She wrote How The Coconut Got Its Face, Name Calling, Ta chambre est un désastre!, and Christophe change de nom. She is also co-owner of a popular Toronto bookstore, A Different Booklist. Itah was honoured with the Marilyn Lastman Award at Artsweek 2004 (Toronto Arts Council Foundation Awards).

Dans les yeux d'Anna

From Anna

A beloved Canadian favourite is available again with a fresh new cover and classic interior illustrations for its 50th anniversary.

Anna lives life in the shadows. Her siblings tease her for a constant clumsiness that she cannot explain or control, and she struggles to read despite her best efforts. When Papa announces that the family is moving from Germany to Canada — after the disappearance of some Jewish neighbours, he can see what the Nazis' rise to power will bring — Anna's heart sinks. How can she learn English when she can't even read German properly? But when the Soldens arrive in Canada, Anna learns that there is a reason for her clumsiness: her failing eyesight. Suddenly, wonderfully, her whole world begins to change. Especially when her new friends in a special class at school help her stand up to some bullies who call her names.

This true Canadian classic by Jean Little was first published in English in 1972 and is an inspiring tale of persevering in the face of worsening visual impairment written by someone with lived experience.

JEAN LITTLE has been called “a Canadian treasure.” She wrote more than fifty books including some of Canada’s best-loved children’s books, such as From Anna and Le long chemin. Many of her books feature children who are orphaned, have a disability, or face other challenges. Jean’s books have been translated into a dozen languages and have won many awards, including a Canadian Library Association Book of the Year award, the Ruth Schwartz Award, the Canada Council Literature Prize, and the Boston Globe Horn-Book Honor Book Award. She was honoured with the Vicky Metcalf Award for her body of work, the Queen’s Diamond Jubilee Medal, and the Order of Canada, and was nominated for the international Astrid Lindgren Award eight times. Jean passed away in 2020.

JOAN SANDIN was born in Wisconsin, grew up in Tucson, Arizona, and lived in Stockholm, Sweden for fifteen years. She always loved to draw, and illustrated her first book—a story written by her big brother Tom—when she was five. Joan has three children, more than a dozen grandchildren, and more than one hundred published books in English and in Swedish. She now lives in Arizona again, where she continues to illustrate, write, and translate children's books.

★ PRAISE

Squished

From the powerhouse duo behind the instant bestseller Allergique comes a fun and relatable new graphic novel about finding your own space... especially when you're in a family of nine!

Eleven-year-old Amélie Lee loves her town, school, the end-of-summer fair, and her two best friends. But she's tired of feeling squished by her six siblings! They're noisy and chaotic and the younger kids love her a little too much.

All Amélie wants is her own room — her own space to be alone and make art. So she's furious when Théo, her grumpy older brother, gets his own room instead, and her wild baby brother, Max, moves into the room she already shares with her clingy sister Pénélope!

Amélie hatches a plan to finally get her own room, all while trying to get Max to sleep at night, navigating changes in her friendships, and working on an art entry for the fair. And when Amélie finds out that her family might move across the country, things get even more complicated.

MEGAN WAGNER LLOYD is the co-creator, with Michelle Mee Nutter, of Allergique, an instant bestseller. Megan is also the author of several picture books, including Paper Mice, Building Books, Finding Wild, and Fort-Building Time, and also Haven, a novel. Je n'aime vraiment pas l'hiver

I Definitely Don't Like Winter

Two little squirrels try to answer the age-old question known to all who live somewhere that has snow: is winter the absolute best or the absolute worst?

Hank and Hugues are best friends – they do EVERYTHING together. Until one morning, when a single, crisp, brown leaf falls to the ground...

Hank is so annoyed! Falling leaves mean winter is coming, and Hank definitely does not like winter. BRRRRRRR! But Hugues is overjoyed! Hugues loves winter — the snow, the snuggles, all of it! AHHHHHHH!

Will these two friends learn to put their differences aside? You bet they will! They may not agree on winter, but there's something they both definitely like: each other.

Comment fait le père Noël pour passer par la cheminée?

How Does Santa Go Down the Chimney?

Mac Barnett and Jon Klassen, beloved, multi-award-winning duo, tackle a perennial question.

When Santa arrives at a child's house on Christmas Eve, does he go down the chimney feet first or headfirst? What if he gets stuck? What if there's no chimney? Maybe he slides under the door, as thin as a piece of paper? Or is it possible he pours himself through the faucet? What happens once he's inside?

The timeless question is answered with ridiculous, plausible, and fanciful explanations mounting in hilarity.

This latest collaboration by the New York Times bestselling team will find a secure spot among family holiday traditions.

MAC BARNETT is the New York Times bestselling author of many picture books, including Les trois boucs et le troll, Triangle, Carré, Cercle, Le loup, le canard et la souris, and Max et Sam creusent, creusent, creusent all illustrated by Jon Klassen. He is also known for L'amour... and Parce que. Mac lives in Oakland, California.

Marvel : Capitaine America

Capitaine America la bande dessinée : L'armée fantôme

Captain America: The Ghost Army

During World War II, Captain America and his young sidekick encounter a threat like none they've ever seen — a Ghost Army. The dead of this war and wars past are coming back to life, impervious to bullets, flames, or anything else the Allies can throw at them. The armies rise from the ground in the night and seem to disappear without a trace. How can Cap and Buck fight something that's already dead? And just what does the mysterious Baron Mordo — sitting in his castle atop nearby Wundagore Mountain — have to do with this?

Award-winning, #1 New York Times bestselling author Alan Gratz merges the worlds of historical fiction and superhero comics in this one-of-a-kind graphic novel that is sure to be met with unbridled enthusiasm from fans of all ages.

ALAN GRATZ is the New York Times bestselling author of several highly acclaimed books for young readers, including Point zéro : événements du 11 septembre, Allies, Grenade, Réfugiés, Projet 1065, and Code of Honor. Alan lives in North Carolina with his wife and daughter.

★ PRAISE

“It’s hard to craft a superhero epic specifically for middle-grade readers that also honors an old-fashioned adventure mentality, but Alan Gratz locks in reader interest . . . Brent Schoonover’s art has old-fashioned charm as well, like an adventure movie with solid, practical effects rather than numbingly sleek digital ones, lending a visual assist to the story’s more human scope. This is not to suggest, of course, that either art or story skimps on the raucous action, nor that there aren’t plenty of Marvel Easter eggs placed throughout the battlefield for eager aficionados to pick out.”

Les aventures de Patate Pourrie : Le meilleur du monde!

Tater Tales: The Greatest in the World!

Two spud siblings face off in a series of epic challenges in this first installment of a hilariously silly graphic novel chapter book series from the bestselling creator of the Narval et Gelato books.

Patate pourrie is a mutant potato who wakes up feeling great, maybe even...the greatest in the world!

But that only makes Patate Pourrie's brother Patate gluante the grumpiest in the world. The only solution? An epic contest to prove who is the greatest once and for all, judged by the only impartial party they can find — their small fry little sister. But as the stakes get higher through the muddy potato sack race, sacred hot potato roll, and a hilarious laughing contest, their rivalry spirals out of control. Suddenly Patate Pourrie is not feeling so spudtacular anymore. Will this tater trio ever be able to determine who is really the greatest in the world?

BEN CLANTON is the creator of the graphic novel series Les aventures de Narval et Gelato. His picture books include Patate pourrie : Le légume le plus mignon du monde! and Patate pourrie : Le légume le plus courageux du monde!. Ben lives in Seattle, Washington.

★ PRAISE

"Chock-full of spudtacular puns and a feel-good surprise ending, Ben Clanton offers a delightful laugh-on-every-page early chapter book for kids ready to tackle longer stories but with very simple text and visual context clues. The graphic novel elements interspersed throughout the standard illustrated text will hold great appeal for young readers."

~ Booklist

"Comically emphatic dialogue, wry narrator commentary, and raucous mixed-media cartooning — including potato stamps — depicts the one-spudmanship. ...Extending his impressive track record of funny geniality, Ben Clanton renders the characters with earnest expressions"

Children In Our World: Death and Grief

The Enfants du monde picture book series helps children make sense of the larger issues and crises that dominate the news in a sensitive and appropriate manner. With relatable comparisons, carefully researched text and striking illustrations, children can begin to understand why people have different cultures, what are customs and traditions and why understanding people from other cultures is important.

Where issues aren't appropriate to describe in words, Hanane Kai's striking and sensitive illustrations help children visualize the issues with images that are suited to their age.

LOUISE SPILSBURY is a prolific children's book author. She has written Les règles et les responsabilités, La guerre et le terrorisme, La pauvreté et la faim, Le racisme et l'intolérance and Protéger la Terre of the Enfants du monde series. She explored almost every subject, from science and geography through to world affairs, social issues, art, history, and literacy. Louise lives and works in Devon, in the United Kingdom.

La leçon de ballet

Ballet Lesson

Peppa goes to her very first ballet lesson where she learns a graceful dance routine. But when Peppa decides to teach Mummy Pig and Daddy Pig how to dance, too, she finds out they might just have some dance moves of their own!

ELIZABETH SCHAEFER lives and works in New York City. As a child, she spent hours imagining stories about charming adventurers, kick-butt princesses, or a galaxy far, far away. Remarkably, she grew up and found a job where she could keep doing exactly that. When she's not writing, she can be found reading important literary novels, composing classical symphonies, or playing video games.

Petite-fille grognon : Le Nouvel An lunaire

Grumpy New Year

This funny and heartwarming follow-up to Grand-papa grognon celebrates Lunar New Year, Chinese traditions, and the love of a doting grandparent.

Daisy is travelling to China, and she's so excited to see her Yeh-Yeh again! She hasn't seen him since he came to visit her. She has big plans for all the fun they'll have together in preparation for Lunar New Year! There are rice cakes to make, markets to visit, and karaoke to sing. But when she arrives, she has trouble sleeping and is less jolly than she hoped.

Throughout this countdown until the Lunar New Year, the roles are reversed as the usually grumpy Yeh-Yeh tries all sorts of things to help Daisy have a fun holiday and get her past her own grumpiness. With ten days to go before Lunar New Year, will Daisy be able to get some rest and have one perfect day before she goes home?

KATRINA MOORE writes and teaches in New Jersey. Earning her M. A. in elementary education, she's been a teacher for a decade in Maryland, Massachusetts, and New York. She is the author of Grand-papa grognon. Her mission is to create books that children will hug for ages.

XINDI YAN left behind a small city in China to realize her dream of being a published artist. Xindi received her BFA in illustration from Pratt Institute and has since worked for the gaming industry and children's media. She illustrated Grand-papa grognon. Xindi currently lives in Brooklyn with her husband and dreams about having a puppy in the near future.
