La neige magique

Outside

What happens when you step outside?

In this picture book fantasy, a child's world transforms through his hard work, imagination, and persistence. The silences in this book work to build a gradual escalation of wonderment — from humble snow angel to fairytale castle, complete with a flying dragon.

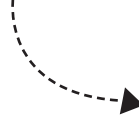

DEIRDRE GILL was inspired to write this, her first story, from her own experiences of playing outside as a child. The outdoors is still a source of wonder and excitement for Deirdre — the place she goes to "see the possibilities," as well as to ski, hike, and bike with her family. She lives in snowy Vermont.

Les lézards verts contre les rectangles rouges

Green Lizards vs. Red Rectangles

The Green Lizards wanted to defeat the Red Rectangles.

The Red Rectangles wanted to defeat the Green Lizards.

They were at war!

Eventually they realized,

Enough Is Enough!

They stopped fighting, and by working together the Green Lizards and the Red Rectangles found a way to live peacefully.

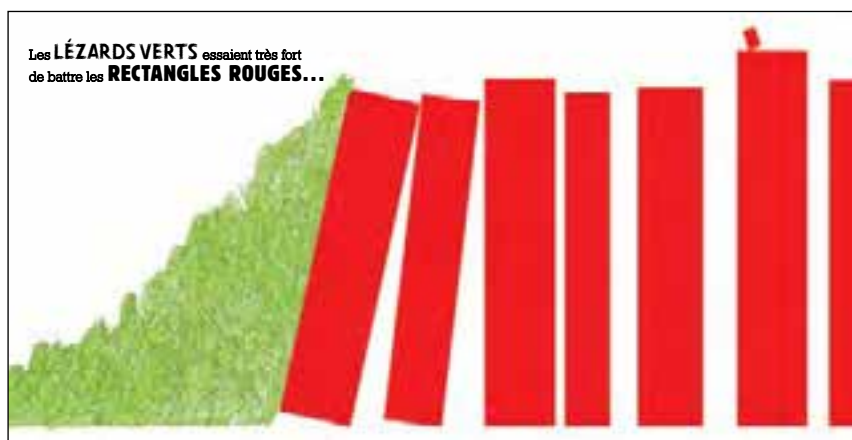

Young readers will understand the value of living in friendship and peace. In the end, it's not about who wins, but rather working together and having fun!

STEVE ANTONY has had a passion for storytelling from an early age, but it was the Master of Arts in Children's Book Illustration at Anglia Ruskin that really enabled him to channel this passion. Since embarking on the Master of Arts course, he has enjoyed creating picture books on a range of subjects from a polite panda to a war between rectangles and lizards!

Le puits de l'espoir

Hope Springs

A drought has settled in the area around the orphanage where Boniface lives. There are long line-ups at the tiny spring where all the local people get their water, and suddenly the orphans are pushed to the back of the line, unwelcome. Boniface's houseparent, Henry, tells him that the people were mean out of fear — they feared there would not be enough water for their families. When the building of the orphanage's well is completed, Boniface has an idea to help the villagers. A lovely picture book of kindness and heart. This story shows that, through compassion and understanding, true generosity can spring from unexpected places.

ERIC WALTERS is a former social worker and elementary school teacher. He wrote his first novel, Stand Your Ground, in 1993. Since then, he has written more than 70 books for young adults and has won more than 100 awards. Eric also founded and runs The Creation of Hope, an organization dedicated to providing care for orphans in the rural Mbooni district in Kenya. He lives in Mississauga, Ontario.

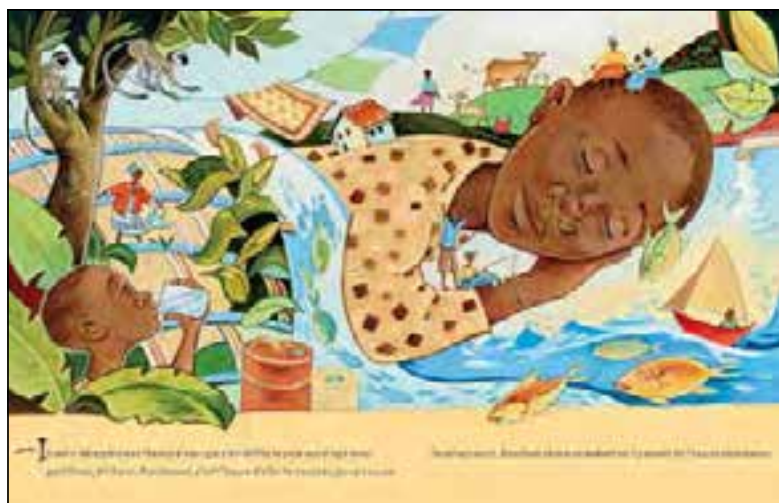

EUGENIE FERNANDES is an award-winning illustrator. She has written and illustrated more than 20 books, and has created the art for more than 60 picture books. Eugenie lives near Peterborough, Ontario.

Pip Bartlett et son guide indispensable des créatures magiques

Pip Bartlett's Guide to Magical Creatures

Pip is a girl who can talk to magical creatures. Her aunt is a vet for magical creatures. And her new friend Tomas is allergic to most magical creatures.

When things go amok — and they often go amok — Pip consults Jeffrey Higgleston's Guide to Magical Creatures, a reference work that Pip finds herself constantly amending. Because dealing with magical creatures like unicorns, griffins, and fuzzles doesn't just require book knowledge — it requires hands-on experience and thinking on your feet.

For example, when fuzzles (which have an awful habit of bursting into flame when they're agitated) invade your town, it's not enough to know what the fuzzles are — Pip and Tomas also must trace the fuzzles' agitation to its source, and in doing so, save the whole town.

MAGGIE STIEFVATER is the #1 New York Times bestselling author of the Shiver trilogy and The Raven Boys. She lives in the middle of nowhere, Virginia, with her husband, her two children, and her animals.

JACKSON PEARCE is the author of a series of retold fairytales, including Sisters Red, Sweetly, Fathomless, and Cold Spell, as well as two standalones, As You Wish and Purity. As J. Nelle Patrick, she is the author of Tsarina. Jackson lives in Atlanta, Georgia.

Ninon tient bon

Noni Speaks Up

Noni always does her best to be kind to others and to do the right thing when faced with adversity. But when her school friends make fun of Hector, she freezes. She cannot utter a single word... Will she be able to speak up?

A relatable tale on anti-bullying that is beautifully accompanied by Geneviève Côté's soft illustrations.

Kris decides to get a dummy of her own. She'll show it to Lindy.

Then weird things begin to happen. Nasty things. Evil things. It can't be the dummy causing all the trouble. Can it?

Manners Are Not For Monkeys!

When the zookeeper moves the monkey cage next to the picnic area, she doesn't know the trouble it will cause. The curious little monkeys stop everything to watch the children playing and eating. They are so fascinating! The monkeys decide to try out some of the children's behaviour for themselves. They try eating like the children, they play quietly without screeching, they even tidy up! Soon, everyone agrees that the monkeys are better behaved than the children... well almost everyone!

HEATHER TEKAVEC first fell in love with children's literature while working as a preschool teacher. She has published nine books for children. Heather lives in Cloverdale, British Columbia.

DAVID HUYCK is a freelance illustrator, cartoonist, designer and artist. He illustrated the picture book If Kids Ruled the World and the graphic novel That One Spooky Night. David lives with his family in Northfield, Minnesota.

Scribble

Circle loves to roll — around and around. Solid Square likes to sit still and strong. Triangle can celebrate all her good points, and always knows which direction to go. But when Scribble suddenly dashes through their ordered world — all messy lines and energy — Circle, Square and Triangle don't know what to think.

But turns out just a zig zag here and a wavy line there are all that's needed to stir imaginations, and soon the shapes find themselves working as a team, on a course for adventure!

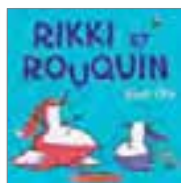

RUTH OHI has illustrated more than fifty children's books — some of which she has also written, including Fox and Squirrel, Fox and Squirrel Make a Friend and Shh! My Brother's Napping, all published by Scholastic Canada. Her books have sold around the world in different languages and have been nominated for many prestigious awards, including the Marilyn Baillie Picture Book Award, Amelia Frances Howard-Gibbon Award, Mr. Christie's Award, Chocolate Lily, Shining Willow, Blue Spruce and the Governor General's Award. She lives with her family in Toronto.

Projet A+

How to Get Awesome

On the first day of grade three, Owen's teacher assigns a year-long writing activity called Project Awesome. Every week, the students need to write about something awesome in their everyday life.

Even so, it doesn't sound awesome to Owen. Owen hates writing and would rather be skateboarding or playing soccer with his best friend Max, or spending time with Copper, the neighbour's dog.

But things don't always go according to plan. When Max stops hanging around and Copper goes away on vacation, Owen turns to his journal entries as an outlet for some of his thoughts about the world around him.

Is it possible that Project Awesome isn't as lame as he thought?

NANCY WILCOX RICHARDS taught elementary school for a number of years. She is the author of How to Tame a Bully, How to Outplay a Bully, How to Handle a Bully, How to Be a Friend and How to Fix a Lie, as well as the Farmer Joe series of picture books and We're All Friends Here. Mini Pom-Pom Pets
Make Your Own Fuzzy Friends

How do kids get critters this small? By making the pom-poms on the prongs of an everyday dinner fork. With our step-by-step Klutz-clear instructions, even a yarn newbie will wind up a pom-pom professional. Kids follow the colour-coded charts as they wrap, tie, and snip the colourful yarn into petite pom-poms. Adding eyes, a nose, ears, a tail, and rosy cheeks (with our special blush marker) gives each tiny pet an outsized personality. Voilà — a zoo of mini critters from froggies, duckies, and piggies to monkeys, lions, and turtles.

With 20+ animals and 150+ cute punch-out features to choose from, there's bound to be a puffy little pocket-sized pet that's a perfect match for every young pom-pommer.

Comes with: 64-page book of instructions; 270 feet of yarn in 8 colours; pre-made mini and super-mini pom-poms; eye and nose beads; punch-out ears, tails, paws, and more; blush marker; wire, glue.
