Dans les bras de papa

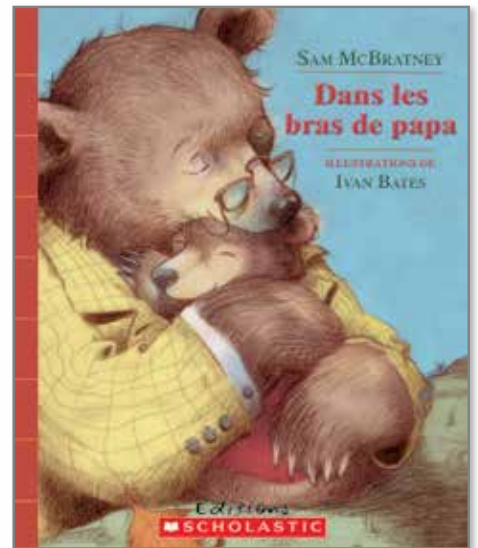

There, There

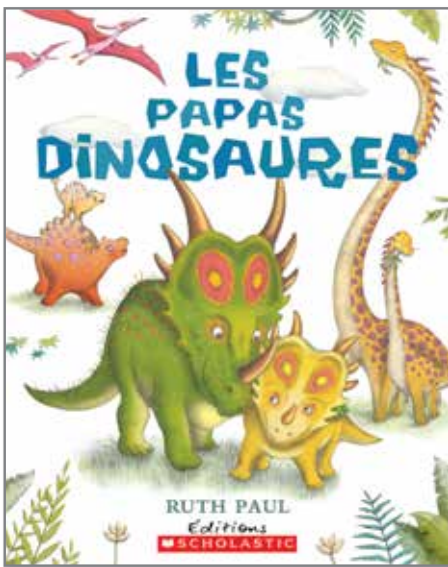

Bastien falls into a deep-down ditch and has to be helped out by his dad. With a "There, there" and a hug, Bastien is soon off to play again. So when Dad hurts his foot, Bastien knows just what to do – a "There, there," a big hug, and everything is all right again.

From Sam McBratney comes this tender story of the special kind of soothing comfort that a hug can bring, making everything just right again.

SAM McBRATNEY is the author of several children books. Sam's distinctive storytelling voice builds on his rich storytelling tradition as a teacher, parent, and grandparent. He lives in Belfast, Northern Ireland.

IVAN BATES studied illustration at Manchester Polytechnic and has illustrated many books for children. He lives in England.

À l'eau, les chiens!

Underwater Dogs

On the surface, it's a simple exercise: a dog's leap, a splash, and then a wet head surfacing with a ball, triumphant. But beneath the water is a chaotic ballet of bared teeth and bubbles, paddling paws, fur and ears billowing in the currents. In these portraits, award-winning pet photographer and animal rights activist Seth Casteel captures new sides of our old friends with vibrant underwater photography that makes it impossible to look away.

With fun, joyful rhymes and information about each dog breed, this is a special treat for kids and adults alike.

SETH CASTEEL is an award-winning photographer and New York Times bestselling author. His series of Underwater Dogs photographs have been seen by hundreds of millions of people around the world and have become one of the most famous series of images in the past decade. The book was the best selling photography book of 2012. Seth lives and works in Chicago and Los Angeles.

★ REVIEWS

“ Seth Casteel's photos of dogs diving into swimming pools in hot pursuit of neon tennis balls have been a sensation.

Survivants

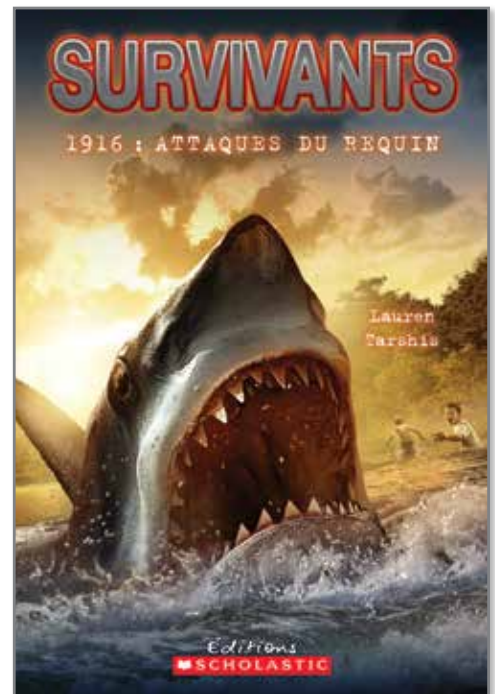

I Survived

1916 : Attaques du requin

The Shark Attacks of 1916

It's the summer of 1916, and ten-year-old Chet Roscow is just as captivated as everyone else along the Jersey shore by the local news: a Great White shark has been attacking and killing people up and down the Atlantic coast, not far from Chet's hometown of Springfield, New Jersey. Then one day, swimming with his friends, Chet sees something in the water. . . Lauren Tarshis brings history's most exciting and terrifying events to life in this new fictional series. Readers will be transported by these stories of amazing kids and how they survived!

LAUREN TARSHIS often wonders how she came to spend most of her waking moments thinking about disasters, as the author of the children's historical fiction series I Survived (Survivants). Each book takes readers into the heart of history's most thrilling and terrifying events. Writing these books often makes her feel very nervous, as though at any moment a volcano could erupt right outside her window. Then again, she has learned a thing or two about avoiding being eaten by a shark.

A new historical fiction series boys will love!

MISSION : ADOPTION

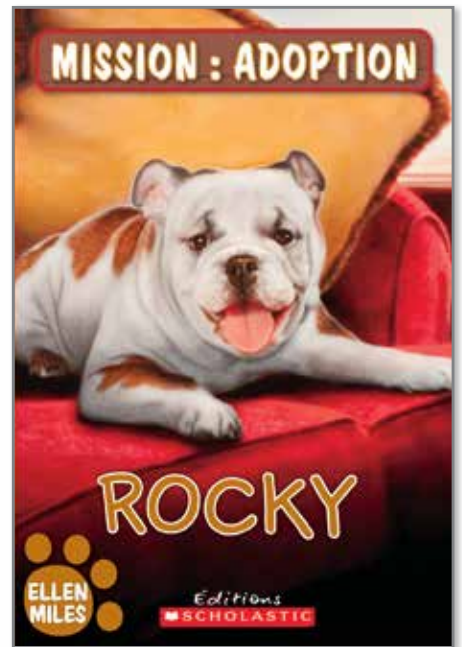

The Puppy Place

Charles and Rosalie Fortin love puppies. They have a puppy of their own named Biscuit, but they also foster dogs that need help finding new homes.

Rocky

When Rosalie sees an ad in the paper for a dog in need of a new home, she is immediately concerned. Why is this person so anxious to get rid of their puppy? Rocky is a cuddly couch potato of a Bulldog. He was originally brought in as a guard dog but he would rather nap than protect a store. While fostering Rocky, Rosalie learns that the puppy is very stubborn and not open to changing his lazy ways. But every pet owner has a different need and Rosalie is able to find an older couple in need of a companion who are more than happy to accommodate the sleepy puppy's lifestyle.

ELLEN MILES likes to write about the different personalities of dogs. She is the author of more than 30 books, including the Puppy Place (Mission : adoption) and Taylor-Made Tales series as well as The Pied Piper and other Scholastic Classics.

Qui sera mon professeur?

Who Will Be My Teacher This Year?

Tomorrow is the first day of school, but who will teach the class? A reading rhinoceros? A mathematical moose? A young student starting a new grade imagines all sorts of different animals his teacher might be.

His imaginative ideas led him to write and publish his very first book, The Ocean Alphabet Book. DAVID BIEDRZYCKI has been drawing since he was 4 years old. Growing up, he wrote and illustrated his own books for family and friends. He illustrated his first children's book in 1996. He also visits over 70 schools a year sharing his work with aspiring writers, illustrators, and readers.
