Put Me in a Book!

By Robert Munsch

Illustrated by Michael Martchenko

A fresh new look for this Must-Have Munsch story!

On their way home from a field trip, the class meets a famous writer who says he is looking for a kid to put in a book. Hailey volunteers, so the writer flattens her out, folds her up, and stuffs her in. But Hailey feels folded and scrunched and trapped and stuck, and asks the kids to get her out of the book. They try all kinds of things, but nothing works, until finally they have an idea and turn the tables on the famous writer!

Put Me in a Book! was inspired by a project that a grade two classroom in North Bay created and mailed to Robert Munsch — now they really ARE in a book!

This book features a brand-new illustration by Michael Martchenko on the cover.

Hugs

By Robert Munsch
Illustrated by Michael Martchenko

This adorable tale is now available in a picture book format!

On the day Thea is mad at Mommy, she and her little brother Tate go for a walk around the block. They meet a snail, a skunk, a porcupine and a gorilla, and get a hug from each one – but the hugs are slimy, smelly, poky and way too hard! It's not until they get back to Mommy that both Tate and Thea get the best hug of all – a Mommy Hug!

This gently affirming story from Robert Munsch is already a bestseller in board book format.

ROBERT MUNSCH is the bestselling author of dozens of picture books, including such classics as The Paper Bag Princess, Love You Forever and Alligator Baby. He is an idol to generations of young Canadians, a member of the Order of Canada, and has a star on Canada's Walk of Fame. Robert Munsch lives in Guelph, Ontario. # Pig the Star

By Aaron Blabey

Pig the Pug is back in another starring role!

*Pig was a pug
and I'm sorry to say,
he just LOVED attention.
He'd show off all day.*

Pig and Trevor try on outfit after outfit while getting their photos taken. Pig gets a little too swept up in the moment. He decides he's a star. A movie star! No — a pop star! Wait . . . a rap star! The ONLY star! He takes over every shot until the terrible moment when the photographer discovers who's got real star potential and it isn't Pig. . . . It's Trevor, Pig's long-suffering companion. Pig's attempts to turn the spotlight back on himself do not go well and maybe, just maybe this time, he learns a little lesson about "hogging" all the attention.

AARON BLABEY was a successful actor for 15 years, as well as an artist, before becoming an author and illustrator of children's books. He is the creator of Pig the Pug, Pig the Winner, Thelma the Unicorn, I Need a Hug and the chapter book series The Bad Guys. Aaron was a National Literacy Ambassador for Australia. # Stego-cumulus

By Hilary Leung Illustrated by Niall Eccles

The magic of cloud watching: where daydreaming and science meet!

Parrot and Panda are very good friends, even though they see the world in very different ways. The one activity they can always agree on is cloud watching.

But on this day, where Panda sees a stormy phoenix in the sky, Parrot sees only a classic nimbostratus. Where Panda sees a ship tossing on the sea, Parrot can only see the science of a stratus formation. They decide to separate, only to find that Parrot wants to talk about the shapes and stories, and Panda misses talking about the science. They come back together and soon see that cloud watching can be about both — and so, a Stego-cumulus is born.

This unique celebration of that favourite pastime, cloud watching, is a beautiful reminder to kids to “be in the moment” and to take in the world around them. It also reminds us all that clouds, like friendships, are ever-changing, and can challenge us to see the world in new ways. But while clouds are ephemeral, good friendships last forever.

A playful non-fiction section at the back, pages torn from Parrot’s cloud notebook and annotated with Panda’s doodles and thoughts, provides further information on cloud types.

The Very Hungry Bear

By Nick Bland

Bear is hungry! He's trying to fish, but instead of food, he only manages to catch . . . a polar bear?

The poor bear is lost and his ice floe is rapidly melting. The polar bear makes a deal — he'll give Bear a pile of fish in return for a place to stay. Bear takes his new friend on a tour, and finally they find just the right home for a polar bear.

Told with Nick Bland's characteristic humour and wit, The Very Hungry Bear is both an endearing tale of friendship and a subtle, yet important, reminder, about preserving our environment.

Pop*By Gordon Korman

Gordon Korman's acclaimed and timely YA novel explores the dangerous side of contact sports.

Marcus is new in town and hoping to make the championship high school football team, but it seems like a closed club run by current star quarterback Troy.

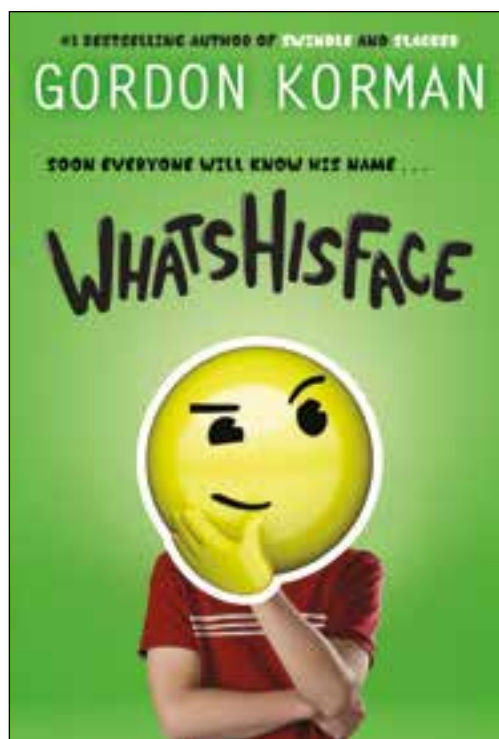

While tossing the ball around in a park one day, Marcus meets Charlie, a man in his fifties who can play football like a pro, which is exactly what he happens to be — a former NFL player and local celebrity. Charlie has boundless energy and coaches Marcus on his fear of being tackled. But as Marcus becomes more involved in his friendship with Charlie, it becomes painfully obvious to him that the long-term effects of violent plays during his football glory days have taken their toll on Charlie.

With wit and sensitivity, Gordon Korman tackles truths about sports while delivering a poignant story about an unlikely friendship.

PRAISE FOR POP:

"A frank examination of the potential consequences of contact sports. . . [Pop] will definitely please any young reader who likes a good, scrappy sports story where jockstrap gags energetically collide with thoughtful revelations."

— The Globe and Mail

The War Below

By Marsha Forchuk Skrypuch

This companion novel to the acclaimed Making Bombs for Hitler explores the underground Ukrainian resistance in the fight against Hitler.

This book was previously published in paperback under the title Underground Soldier.

The Nazis took Luka from his home in Ukraine and forced him into a labour camp. Now, Luka has smuggled himself out — but he has left behind his dearest friend, Lida. Someday, he vows, he'll find her again.

But first, he must survive.

Racing through the mountains, Luka evades capture by both Nazis and Soviet agents. When he meets the underground Ukrainian Insurgent Army, he knows that is where he belongs: fighting Nazis and Soviets alike. But the desperate rescues and guerilla raids put Luka back in the line of fire. Can he persevere long enough to find Lida again, or to make it back home where his father must be waiting for him?

Inspired by true stories, this novel is a testament to the strength of the human spirit in the face of war.

My Deal with the Universe

By Deborah Kerbel

Maybe “normal” isn’t all it’s cracked up to be.

All twelve year-old Daisy Fisher wants is to be normal — or at least to not stick out like a sore thumb. But growing up in the house disparagingly referred to as the “Jungle” makes that pretty much impossible. When your parents’ activism brands them as a nuisance and your house is overrun with vines and critters, it’s not so easy to fit in. And it definitely doesn’t help when the neighbours declare your family public enemy number one. Or when your best (and possibly only) friend leaves for summer camp and forgets you exist. Or when your twin brother’s cancer might be growing back.

Will this be the summer Daisy changes things for the better? She can’t help where she lives, but if she could find a new friend, cultivate some courage, and figure out a way to keep her brother healthy, maybe life will finally be normal. Or will it?

An extraordinary new novel from acclaimed author Deborah Kerbel.

Exo

By Fonda Lee*The fight for the future begins.

It's been a century of peace since Earth became a colony of the zhree, an alien race with far reaches into the galaxy. Some die-hard extremists still oppose the zhree's rule on Earth, but Donovan Reyes isn't one of them. His dad holds the prestigious position of Prime Liaison, and Donovan's high social standing along with his exocel (a remarkable alien technology fused to his body) guarantees him a bright future in the security forces. That is, until a routine patrol goes awry and Donovan's abducted by the human revolutionary group Sapience, which is determined to end alien control.

When Sapience realizes whose son Donovan is, they think they've found the ultimate bargaining chip. But the Prime Liaison doesn't negotiate with terrorists, not even for his own son. Left in the hands of terrorists who have more uses for him dead than alive, the fate of Earth rests on Donovan's survival. Because if Sapience kills him, it could spark another intergalactic war.

And Earth didn't win the last one . . .

By Fonda Lee

It's time to take back Earth.

Earth's century of peace as a colony of an alien race has been shattered. As the alien-run government navigates peace talks with the human terrorist group Sapience, Donovan Reyes tries to put his life back together and return to his duty as a member of the security forces. But a new order comes from the alien home planet: withdraw. Earth has proven too costly and unstable to maintain as a colony, so the aliens, along with a small selection of humans, begin to make plans to leave. As word of the withdrawal spreads through the galaxy, Earth suddenly becomes vulnerable to a takeover from other aliens races — aliens who do not seek to live in harmony with humans, but to ravage and destroy the planet.

As a galactic invasion threatens, Donovan realizes that Sapience holds the key that could stop the pending war. Yet in order to save humankind, all species on Earth will have to work together, and Donovan might just have to make the ultimate sacrifice to convince them to do so.

Scholastic Canada Biography: Meet Viola Desmond

By Elizabeth MacLeod Illustrated by Mike Deas

Meet Viola Desmond, community leader and early civil rights trailblazer!

On the night of November 8, 1946, Nova Scotia businesswoman Viola Desmond stood up for her right to be in the unofficial whites-only section of a New Glasgow movie theatre . . . and was arrested for it. Supported by the Nova Scotia Association for the Advancement of Coloured People and the black-owned newspaper The Clarion, Viola took her quest for the right to freedom from discrimination to the courts. While she ultimately did not succeed, she was a beacon to other early civil-rights activists. Her sister Wanda worked hard to promote Viola's legacy, which has finally been honoured by Viola's inclusion on the new Canadian $10 bill.

Scholastic Canada Biography: Meet Chris Hadfield

By Elizabeth MacLeod Illustrated by Mike Deas

Meet Colonel Chris Hadfield, the first Canadian to walk in space — and make a music video while in orbit!

When Chris Hadfield was a boy, growing up on a farm in Milton, Ontario, Canada didn't have a space program. But from the moment he saw a man first walk on the moon, young Chris decided he would somehow get to space. And with everything Chris did, from learning to fix farm machinery and joining the Air Cadets to getting an engineering degree and becoming a test pilot, he prepared himself to get there. Chris Hadfield has rocketed into space three times, been on two space walks and was the first Canadian to command the International Space Station. And nobody plays a guitar in space or rocks a mustache better!

This new picture book biography series features simple text and full-colour, comic-flavoured illustrations, with speech balloons that help bring the story alive. Photos and a timeline support the narrative.

ELIZABETH MACLEOD is the author of many notable Canadian non-fiction titles including Canada Year-By-Year and the critically acclaimed biographies: Alexander Graham Bell: An Inventive Life; Lucy Maud Montgomery: A Writer's Life; and George Washington Carver: An Innovative Life. MIKE DEAS is an author and illustrator of graphic novels, most recently Dalen and Gole: Scandal in Port Angus. He is the illustrator of the Graphic Guide Adventure series.
