THE BIG RED DOG™

A Clifford Party Idea

Paw Print Balloons

What you'll need:

Plain helium or regular balloons

Permanent marker

String or ribbon

Scissors

Buy plain, inflated helium balloons or blow up regular ones. Draw dog prints on the inflated balloons with the marker: draw a circle in the middle with four smaller circles arcing above it and one to the side. Add other animal footprints.

Once the balloons are decorated, tie a string or ribbon around each and hang the balloons in bunches from light fixtures, chairs, or wherever, with footprints showing, of course!

You can also use the balloons as name tags for seats. Write each child's name on the balloon and tie to the back of the chairs. Then every child can take home their balloon after the party!
