

Operations With Money

.....

101

A jacket costs $100.00 more than a sweater. Together, they sell for $211.00.

What is the price of the jacket? _____

What is the price of the sweater? _____

102

At Nose for Clothes, Inez bought a T-shirt for $12.50 and a pair of jeans for $5.00 more than twice that price. She paid with a $50.00 bill.

What change should she get? _____

103

Ted and Charlene sold homemade chocolate chip cookies. After 5 days, they had sales totaling $40.00. Each day their sales were $0.25 higher than on the previous day.

What were sales on the first day? _____

104

Tanya brought $9.05 to the mall. She returned home with less than $1.00 in her purse.

What is the least she could have spent? _____

