Audrey's Tree House

By Jenny Hughes

Illustrated by Jonathan Bentley

Audrey is bigger than she was yesterday. Now she needs a bigger house. So she tells her dad to build her one.

At the top of a tree.

It is an ideal house. It has a bathtub for snorkeling, a place to drink tea, and somewhere to hide the dirty cups.

The house is perfect in every way.

Except for one thing . . .

Ages 3 to 5

This is a perfect gentle read for people looking for a very special father daughter story.

“I love this book because it is the story of a young girl whose father goes above and beyond her wildest imagination to support her dreams of independence. And when she finds she may not be quite as grown up and she expected, he supports her still in the most tender way possible.” — Janet
