Fire & Flood

By Victoria Scott

Fire & Flood is a dystopian thriller perfect for teen readers still longing for The Hunger Games. Tella Holloway enters the Brimstone Bleed: a mysterious and deadly race across desert, jungle, ocean, and mountain to win the ultimate prize: a cure for her dying brother. Each Contender enters the race with a Pandora — a powerful genetically-engineered animal that will protect its Contender during the race. Tella manages to make some allies who help her survive, including Guy — a fellow Contender who is a tempting alliance for reasons other than his loyalty. Fire & Flood will leave you on the edge of your seat as Tella faces cut-throat Contenders, the dangers of the race, and more than that, the shocking origins of the Brimstone Bleed.

Ages 13 & up

“I couldn’t put this book down! Fire & Flood is easily one of the best, most exciting YA dystopian books out there.”
