

Book Talk

Books We Love This Month

Family Tree Book 1: Better to Wish

By Ann M. Martin

This is the first in a four book series that will span four generations of girls in one family throughout life and death, family and friendships. It starts in 1930 with Abby, who lives a small-town lifestyle within what appears to be a typical family. But things, as we know, are not always as they seem. Readers will be thoroughly smitten with Ann M. Martin's nostalgic style and will be clamouring for Book 2, which will focus on a grown-up Abby's own daughter.

Ages 8-12

“I loved this book because it reminds me of all the books I loved reading while I grew up. I can't wait for the second in the series.” — Susan