

Book Talk

Books We Love This Month

Lawless: Book 1

By Jeffrey Salane

M Freeman is accepted to the prestigious Lawless boarding school, only to discover that it's not like any other boarding school, and that her parents aren't the quiet art historians she thought they were, but highly successful art thieves. Lawless is a school for the children of master criminals. M is put through a series of tests where she proves her skill at forgeries, thievery and conning (where she excels). But M is not sure she wants to be on the wrong side of the law.

Ages 10-14

"I loved this book because Lawless is not your everyday boarding school, and the story is full of exciting action." — Keri Anne

 SCHOLASTIC

www.scholastic.ca