

Book Talk

Books We Love in September

Available September 18th!

The Raven Boys

By Maggie Stiefvater

Legend tells that Glendower, a vanished Welsh king, sleeps beneath the hills until he's needed. The first person to find him will be granted a wish—either by seeing him open his eyes, or by cutting out his heart.

Gansey has always loved the tales of sleeping kings and he thinks he has found Glendower. Blue is the daughter of the town psychic, but is too practical to believe in things like spirits or true love. Maggie Stiefvater tells the story of how Gansey and Blue find themselves pulled forward into the same adventure.

Ages 12 & up

“I picked it up because I loved The Scorpio Races, and finished it because I couldn't put it down. A great spooky adventure for fall, the story will pull you along and leave you desperate for the next book.”

 SCHOLASTIC

www.scholastic.ca