

Book Talk

Books We Love This Month

Torn

By David Massey

Ellie is a British medic newly stationed in war-torn Afghanistan. During her first harrowing gun fight, she sees a girl walk right into the hail of bullets. The young medic risks the line of fire to rescue her, only to realize the girl is gone. A team of soldiers are sent to find the girl, who is actually the granddaughter of an important political figure. Ellie travels to the girl's home village to find a gang of Afghan child soldiers and a situation that challenges everything she thought she knew about war and love.

Ages 14 and up

"I love this book because the war scenes were not overly violent and Ellie is completely believable in her loyalty and doubt."

— Keri-Anne

 SCHOLASTIC

www.scholastic.ca