Loot

By Jude Watson

On a foggy night in Amsterdam, Archibald McQuinn, the notorious cat burglar, falls from a roof and says two last words to his young son, March: "Find jewels." His father is not talking about hidden loot, but rather Jules, the twin sister March never knew he had. With just one good heist, they'll live the life of riches and freedom that most kids only dream about . . .

Ages 8-12

"I loved this book because when I was reading it, it went everywhere with me in case I would have five minutes to read a little more. The action was non-stop!"
