Little Jack Horner Live From the Corner

By Helaine Becker

Illustrated by Mike Boldt

Mike Boldt and Helaine Becker team up to do a new take on a classic nursery rhyme by turning it into a live Reality Show. Jack Horner attempts to perform Old MacDonald but Mary Quite Contrary keeps interrupting and correcting his lyrics as all the Mother Goose characters look on.

Ages 3-7

“I love this book because it’s an interesting take on an old favourite. The characters feel familiar because the illustrations are based on famous people. Also, the author and illustrator are both great public speakers!”
