

Book Talk

Books We Love This Month

Marie Antoinette, Serial Killer

By Katie Alender

This is like a crime novel, starting with a grisly murder that sets up a story that grips you from the first pages. On a class trip to Paris, Colette discovers (with the help of a charming French guy) a shocking secret involving a dark, hidden history. As she tours the city's palaces and museums, Colette keeps seeing a ghostly vision: a woman in a ball gown and a big, powdered wig who looks suspiciously like Marie Antoinette. Meanwhile, people are losing their heads in what most believe is the work of a serial killer. Colette soon finds herself in danger as she may hold the key to solving the murders.

Ages 12 and up

“I loved this book because I ate cake, read it in one gulp, AND kept my head!”

— Susan

 SCHOLASTIC

www.scholastic.ca