

Book Talk

Books We Love This Month

The Shadow Breakers

By Daniel Blythe

In book one of the Shadow Breakers series, strange things start to happen to 12-year-old Miranda after her father dies and her family moves to a new town. She feels a presence stalking her and computers explode for no reason. She sets out to uncover the supernatural mystery with the help of her schoolteacher and her four very different classmates — who might be more clued in than they let on

Ages 10-14

“I was first interested in this book because it was written by the author of various Doctor Who novels. However, I was delighted to find a James Bond element. I loved this book because it’s spooky, funny and highly entertaining.”

— Keri-Anne

 SCHOLASTIC

www.scholastic.ca