

Book Talk

Books We Love This Month

The Wolf Princess

By Cathryn Constable

This is a tale of an orphaned schoolgirl who always dreamed of winter—whose reality is in drab, rainy London at boarding school. Sophie finds school almost unbearable until the day a mysterious woman shows up. She is obviously Russian, having “stepped out of a land of palaces and poetry.” Once Sophie and her friends are away from the headmistress, the stranger’s interest in the school evaporates into something else, and the next thing you know the girls are going to St. Petersburg! Thus an adventure begins that will have you shivering in the autumn sun.

Ages 10-14

“I loved this book because it has it all: adventure, mystery, good vs. evil (and good wins!), and the glittering landscape of a Russian winter wonderland.”

— Susan

 SCHOLASTIC

www.scholastic.ca