Catch a Falling Star

By Kim Culbertson

Catch a Falling Star is a story about a small-town girl with an odd summer job: pretending to date Hollywood heartthrob, Adam Jakes. Carter doesn't subscribe to the glamorous Hollywood life or Adam's celebrity status, but her family desperately needs the money. When Carter learns there's more to Adam than his fame, she begins to wonder if the happily-ever-after she and Adam are acting out could be for real. Filled with charming characters, stargazing, and Hollywood glitz mixed with small-town charm, this is a must-read story of summer love!

Ages 12 & up

If you like This is What Happy Looks Like by Jennifer E. Smith or The Lonely Hearts Club by Elizabeth Eulberg, you'll love Catch a Falling Star.

"I loved this book! You can live vicariously through Carter to find out what it's like to have a celebrity heartthrob stroll into your life and sweep you off your feet!" — Ashley
