Mademoiselle Nancy et le chien chic Fancy Nancy and the Posh Puppy

Mademoiselle Nancy is back! And when her family decides to get a dog, she's certain she can be fancier than ever. After all, a papillon — a small, delicate, fluffy dog — is the ultimate accessory. But her family wants a large, plain dog. How unglamorous!

With Mademoiselle Nancy's trademark humour and warmth, Nancy discovers that real fanciness does not depend simply on appearance but more on a genuine joie de vivre, which is a fancy phrase for having lots of fun.

J'aime mon papa pirate

I Love My Pirate Papa

A pirate's life is a raucous life — full of rough-and-tumble adventure, hard work, and the occasional brush with danger. And a ship isn't a cozy place. But to a hardy seafaring boy with a pirate for a papa, the waves feel just like home.

Plenty salty and a little bit sweet, this pirate papa is the most lovable dad ever to fly the Jolly Roger.

Rosélicieux

Pinkalicious

Rosalie eats so many pink cupcakes that she wakes up the next morning with pink skin and hair. The colour just won't wash off, and the doctor tells her to eat green food to get better. Still, when her parents aren't looking, she sneaks just one more treat — and turns red. Startled, she starts to choke down her veggies and finally returns to normal. When everything seems okay, Daddy asks what happened to the other cupcakes, and Rosalie's little brother bounds into the room with one in hand, happily showing off his new pink skin.

Dieppe

La journée la plus sombre de la Deuxième Guerre mondiale

Dieppe

Canada's Darkest Day of World War II

After nine hours of fierce fighting, when the Allies were finally forced to retreat from the battered beaches of Dieppe, 3367 soldiers (2752 of them Canadian) remained on the beaches — dead, or soon to be taken prisoner. Dieppe is one of the three best-known battles from World War II — one called “the bloodiest nine hours in Canadian military history.” Of the nearly 5000 Canadian troops at Dieppe, there were over 3000 casualties, almost 1000 killed, and 2000 taken as POWs. A companion to the Silver Birch finalist and Children’s Literature Round Tables of Canada Information Book Award winner, On Juno Beach (Le débarquement à Juno), and Children’s Literature Round Tables of Canada Information Book Honour Book At Vimy Ridge (La bataille de Vimy).
