

Bayview High

After Dinner Barf Chapter 8: Tiny Tina

Working with Words—Verb tense

Verbs, or action words, can be used to talk about:

- (a) action that is happening now (present tense)
- (b) action that took place in the past (past tense)
- (c) action that is yet to take place (future tense)

For example: I saw them. (past tense)

I see them. (present tense)

I will see them. (future tense)

Write three sentences with each of the following words to show the verb tenses:
