The Big Split Chapter 11: Playing Mom

Working with Words—Interjections

Interjections are exclamations or brief remarks that appear at the beginning of a sentence and show strong emotion. An interjection can stand by itself as a sentence.

For example: Ow! That hurts.

Use the following interjections to compose sentences:

Oh! Wow! Yippee!

Wait! Ugh! Hey!

Oops! Ouch! Stop!
