

Bayview High

Crossing the Line Chapter 8: Hooking Up

Working with Words—Correct Word Usage

The verb teach means to give instruction or pass on knowledge. The verb learn means to receive instruction or knowledge.

Underline the correct verb in each sentence.

1. Coach Martins (taught, learned) the team shooting drills.
2. Ms. Jenkins will (learn, teach) the figure skaters to spin.
3. My cousin (taught, learned) me how to skate.
4. Pete (teaches, learns) Jack how to bench press safely.
5. I (learned, taught) how to skate backwards.
6. (Learn, teach) me to lace up my skates the way you do.

Write sentences using each verb:

1. teach

2. learned

3. taught
