

Bayview High

Beating Up Daniel Chapter 4: Public Enemy #1

Working with Words—Sentence Fragments

Sometimes authors use incomplete sentences or sentence fragments in their writing to get a certain effect. Are the following underlined sentence fragments used effectively (E) or are they are careless errors. (CE) Mark each sentence (E) or (CE).

- _____ 1. No. Thanks for the offer, but I'd rather keep my lunch down.
- _____ 2. Beside the library. We were meeting after school.
- _____ 3. Her long, black, shiny hair. In a ponytail.
- _____ 4. I heard about your little love notes. Very sweet.
- _____ 5. He looked embarrassed. Another chance.
- _____ 6. I'll see you after class. In the locker room.
- _____ 7. About the note? Did you tell her?
- _____ 8. Where shall we meet? After school.
- _____ 9. A dumb, conceited loser.
- _____ 10. Let's get out of here. To my house.