Beating Up Daniel Chapter 7: Party On

Working with Words—Hyphens

Hyphens are used to:

- (a) connect parts of a compound word
- (b) divide a word at the end of a line

For example:

- (a) forty-seven
- (b) I had met Justin once before but the introduction was cut short by the doorbell.

Insert hyphens where required in the following sentences:

1. The side by side tables in the living room complimented the tall windows.
2. Rachel's curls were pulled back in a claw like clip.
3. At the end of the day Justin rushed to the drama department to get his script.
4. The question was a no brainer.
5. Emily sat at the computer and surfed the net for information.
6. The luxury of Travis's two storey mansion made Justin feel uncomfortable.
