Dangerous Rivals Chapter 10: Out of It

Working with Words—Sentence Types

Sentences can be classified according to their purpose.

For example: A sentence that makes a statement is called a declarative sentence. It ends with a period. A sentence that questions is called an interrogative sentence and ends with a question mark.

Add punctuation to each sentence below and give the purpose.

1. What are you talking about  _____
2. He stopped at Big Dog's house  _____
3. Where had all his time gone  _____
4. Should I read the book or rent the movie  _____
5. There was only one thing to do  _____

Write one declarative sentence and one interrogative sentence.

1. _____
2. _____
