Chapter 6: Can You Say Cheese?

Working with Words—Using Puns as Humour

Puns are the clever use of words that have more than one meaning and can be used as a form of humour. Riley used a pun when he said, “I am Joe King! Get it! I am ‘joe-king’! I’m joking!”

Underline the words that create puns in the following sentences:

- I’m built backwards; my nose runs and my feet smell.
- I had to slow down the car by putting my foot down.
- My bedroom lamps are social lights because they keep going out together.
