After You Read — Post-Reading Reflection

Although the world of technology has sped up the communication process and opened up the world to information, there are many pitfalls that are currently being addressed by parents, educators, and law enforcement.

1. What do you think are the three most important issues that need to be addressed in the use of technology? Why do you think so?

2. If you do not think there are any issues, talk to an adult and find out what they think.
