Chapter 6: Are You New Here?

Working with Words—Using Prepositional Phrases

A phrase is a group of words that does not contain both a subject and a verb. A prepositional phrase begins with a preposition. (on, under, to, before, below...)

For example: Anna was a girl with long, curly hair.

Underline the prepositional phrase in each sentence and circle the preposition:

1. Kalen walked up to the counter.
2. He looked through the glass wall.
3. The woman behind the desk gave him a key.
4. Kalen changed quickly into his workout gear.
5. He stepped around a guy lifting weights.

Write five sentences with prepositional phrases using the following prepositions:

for _____ beside _____ near _____ toward _____ through _____
