Working with Words—Word Usage (good/well)

The word good is an adjective. Adjectives modify nouns or pronouns.

The word well is an adverb. Adverbs modify verbs, adjectives or other adverbs.

For example:

A good sleep will make you feel better tomorrow.

Sleep well tonight Anna.

Use the correct word in each sentence:

1. Anna's mother gave her _____ advice.
2. She played soccer _____.
3. Jennifer, Colleen, and Anna are _____ friends.
4. How _____ can you run?
5. To score a point you must handle the ball _____.
6. I slept _____ last night.

Write two sentences using good and well.

1. _____

2. _____
