Chapter 3: The Vomit Room

Working with Words—Research through a Field Trip

Anna's room was painted lime green and hot pink. Take a field trip to the nearest home supply or paint store and look at paint chips. Choose colours to decorate two teenage boys' rooms and two teenage girls' rooms. Try to match the colours to the personalities of your imaginary teenagers. Complete the following chart with the paint colour name or number and the company that manufactures the paint. NOTE: You may take the paint chips home to complete this chart.
