

UNDERGROUND

CROSSWORD PUZZLE

Geronimo and his friends go DOWN ladders and then ACROSS the city in sewers and tunnels, looking for the mysterious phantom cat. But you don't have to go underground to fill in the words that go DOWN and ACROSS in this puzzle. All you have to do is MAKE SURE YOUR WITS AND YOUR PENCIL ARE SHARP.

Across

- Some kids are afraid of me. I'm the opposite of light. I'm the _____.
- You have to put me into your camera before you take pictures. I'm a roll of _____.
- I'm a ship that travels underwater, while the captain looks out through the periscope. I'm a _____.
- I wear a white coat and work in a laboratory. Maybe I'll make a new discovery or create a new invention. I'm a _____.
- I'm heavy and U-shaped, and I attract iron. I'm a _____.
- You use me to turn the light on and off. Click! I'm a _____.
- When I ring, pick me up and say, "Hello." I'm a _____.

Down

- I'm the place where you get on the subway. I have a token booth and platforms. I'm a _____.
- Put me in your pocket or purse. You can't buy anything without me. I'm _____.
- If you want to get out of the subway, follow the signs with my name on them. I'm the _____.
- I'm a great big, smelly underground pipe that carries away the city's dirty water. I'm a _____.
- I'm some delicious meat and cheese between two slices of bread. Yum! I'm a _____.

Answers to this puzzle appear on The Rodent's Gazette Online, Issue 11 at www.scholastic.com/geronimostilton

