CHAPTER 1

Sunny couldn't place her paw on it,
but something felt strange.

But maybe that was just the grumbling in her empty stomach.

Sunny's human had forgotten to give her goodbye treats before leaving the house. Sunny's stomach growled loudly at the thought of the missing treats.

Sunny rolled down the couch and sought comfort in her usual routine.

First, she visited all the rooms, coated them with fur, and filled the air with her unique puggy scent.
