For all the world's cupids, who bring their communities together with love and friendship.
Thank you for your important work. — B.D

For my nieces and nephews, Anna, Samantha, Teddy, Reagan, Emmy, and Henry. You're growing older every day, but I'll always remember when you were the littlest! — J.P.

First, Archie went to find his dad.
He taught cupids to use their bows and arrows to spread love all around.

Archie positioned his bow and aimed an arrow at the target.
The arrow shot out of the bow ... and burst right in front of him.

"Hmmm," Archie's dad mused. "I'll have to make you a smaller bow. Come back later."
