

Brady was the first to arrive and the first to get a Mudbugs uniform. He chose his lucky number 4. As his teammates arrived, Brady high-fived them, and Coach handed out more shirts and caps. Tree was a bit late. The only uniform left was a size extra-small. It just wouldn't do.

“Here, take mine,” Coach told him. “You’ll never be able to swing a bat in that.” He put the extra-small shirt in his sports bag. Everyone was happy — until the practice started.
