

Now Rabbit had steadfast control of the puck,
But Bighorn was on him, and Rabbit was stuck.

Then Marmot decided to enter the fray.
He scooped up the puck before skating away.

Wolverine was wide open and called for the pass.
Marmot's wrist shot was perfect, but Fox raced in fast.

Clever Fox swiped the puck and then raced for the net.
He zoomed past Wolverine without breaking a sweat.