Ready, Set, Go!

Madeleine's dad is going to his very first marathon. But they get there late and Dad sends Madeleine back to the car for his lucky water bottle. Before she can find it, the starter's horn goes off and the runners are off!

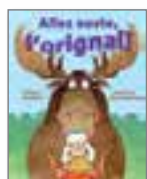

Madeleine grabs the water bottle and dashes down the course looking for her dad. She runs up hills and down hills, and catches up with runners wearing tutus and vegetable costumes and normal clothes. She asks each one: "Have you seen my dad?" Some of the runners are nice, some ignore her, and some call her a pipsqueak, but none of them has seen her father.

Finally Madeleine gets to the finish line, where she finds her father... and gets a surprise!

Les épouvantails de minuit

The Scarecrow Walks at Midnight

Julie loves visiting her grandparents' farm. Her grandma's chocolate chip pancakes are the best and her grandpa tells the scariest stories. But this summer, the farm has really changed. The cornfields are sparse. Grandma and Grandpa seem worn out. And the single scarecrow has been replaced by twelve evil-looking ones.

Then one night Julie sees something really odd. The scarecrows seem to be moving. Twitching on their stakes. Coming alive . . .

Mon voisin Oscar Une histoire inspirée de l'enfance d'Oscar Peterson

Oscar Lives Next Door : A Story Inspired by Oscar Peterson's Childhood

Long before Oscar Peterson became a successful jazz pianist, he was a boy who loved to play the trumpet. When a bout of tuberculosis weakened his lungs, Oscar could no longer play his beloved instrument. He took up piano and the rest is history.

Mon voisin Oscar is a fictional story inspired by these facts. The book imagines a next door neighbour for Oscar named Émilie, who gets into mischief with him, but also appreciates his talents. Émilie writes to Oscar during his long stay in the hospital, and she encourages his earliest notes on the piano.

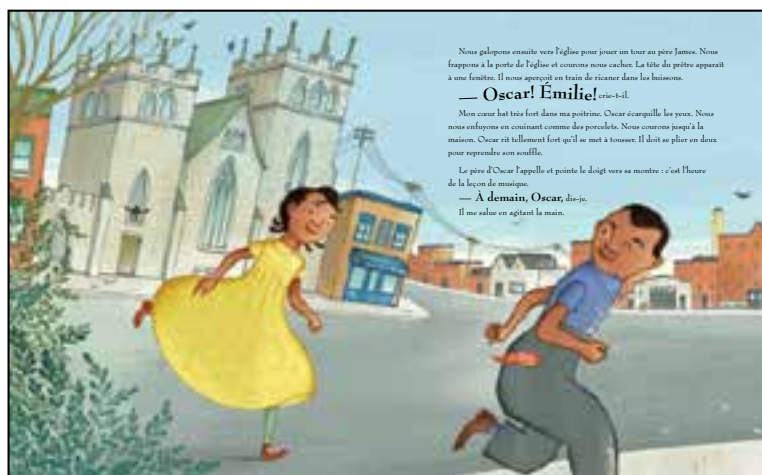

Set in Oscar's true childhood neighbourhood of St-Henri — now known as Little Burgundy — the book provides a wonderful sense of this 1930s neighbourhood where most of Montreal's Black working class population lived. Detailed illustrations make the community's culture and music almost tangible.

BONNIE FARMER is an elementary school teacher, a children's book author, and a playwright living in Dorval, Quebec. Her most recent children's book, ABC Letter in the Library, was a Canadian Children's Book Centre Our Choice selection.

MARIE LAFRANCE is a French Canadian illustrator of many books including Une poule pour Izzy Pippik and Bunny, cheval de guerre. Her work has been nominated twice for a Governor General's award. Marie now primarily works on picture books, using her warm and gently humorous illustrations to delight and entertain children of all ages. She lives in Montreal.

Bug in a Vacuum

A bug flies through an open door into a house, through a bathroom, across a kitchen and a bedroom and into a living room... where its entire life changes with the switch of a button. Sucked into the void of a vacuum bag, this one little bug moves through denial, bargaining, anger, despair and eventually acceptance — the five stages of grief — as it comes to terms with its fate. Will there be a light at the end of the tunnel? Will there be dust bunnies in the void?

A funny, suspenseful, and poignant look at the travails of a bug trapped in a vacuum. The book you have been waiting for to explain the five stages of grief to children of all ages.

“The beauty of this story is that it articulates something kids seem to intuitively know, but can't really explain with language. The way that Klassen's illustrations tell as much of the story as Barnett's words is absolutely brilliant.”

Quand le père Noël était petit...

When Santa Was a Baby

Santa's parents think their little one is absolutely wonderful, even though he has a booming voice instead of a baby's gurgle, loves to stand in front of the freezer, gives his birthday presents away, trains his hamsters to pull a matchbox sleigh . . . and has an unusual interest in chimneys. Bailey has written an adorably funny portrait of an oddball kid who fulfills his destiny — and two very proud parents.

LINDA BAILEY has written more than twenty books for children in a number of different genres, including the best-selling Stanley-the-dog series, Toads on Toast, and most recently, If You Happen to Have a Dinosaur (Si jamais tu avais un dinosaure...). Linda has garnered a long list of honours in Canada such as the Ontario Blue Spruce Award, the Atlantic Provinces Hackmatack Award and the Arthur Ellis Award. She lives in Vancouver, BC.

GENEVIÈVE GODBOUT lives in Montreal where she works as a children's book and fashion illustrator. She studied traditional animation in Montreal and at the prestigious Gobelins school in Paris.

L'éveil des tombeaux

TombQuest

N° 1 - Le livre des morts

#1: Book of the Dead

The tombs are opening . . .

Nothing can save Alex Sennefer's life. That's what all the doctors say, but his mother knows it's not true. She knows that the Lost Spells of the Egyptian Book of the Dead can pull her son back from the brink. The problem? When she uses the spells, five Death Walkers are also brought back to life.

An ancient evil has been unleashed. Long-dead mummies are awakening. New York City is overrun by menacing scorpions. And worst of all for Alex, his mom and the Lost Spells have both disappeared. He and his best friend, Ren, will do anything to find his mom and save the world. . . even if they have to go head-to-head with a Death Walker who has been plotting his revenge for 3,000 years.

Some tombs were meant to stay closed . . .

★ REVIEWS

“ If this installment doesn't take full advantage of its Egyptian themes, it remains a fun read with solid action sequences and some gruesome imagery. ”

~ Publisher's Weekly

“ Like a preteen Indiana Jones and Lara Croft, Alex and Ren make a compelling duo, and Northrop balances pathos and action effectively to engage readers. Funny and smart, Alex and Ren are excellent companions for this fast-paced and scorpion-filled ride. ”

Breakaway

JT McDonald has been looking forward to his first Christmas Break Hockey Camp for months. And now that school's finally out, he's ready to spend a solid week learning from a pro — Danny Holbrook of the Vancouver Canucks!

But because Mom was late signing him up, instead of working with his NHL hero, JT will be training on another team. The good news: the coach is a two-time Olympic gold medalist. The bad news: Coach won her medals in women's hockey.

JT is positive his team could never beat Danny Holbrook's in the game at the end of the week. But with Coach Katie Gunnar at the helm, JT and his friends are headed for a big attitude adjustment.

W.C. MACK who also writes as Winnie Mack, was born and raised in Vancouver. She studied Writing and English at the University of Victoria, always daydreaming about seeing her own books on the shelves of a library or bookstore someday. She currently lives in Portland, Oregon.

#4: Dawn of the Dead

Dawn has a secret, one she can't bear to tell a soul: she comes from a family of zombies! And while she won't know if she's gotten the family curse until her thirteenth birthday, she's forced to move with her parents to a hidden zombie town called Vespertine so she can fit in with her own kind. Fit in with zombies? Over her dead body!

Tome 4

#4: Fire and Ice

Strange things are happening at the frozen edge of the world. Conor, Abéké, Meilin, and Rollan have crisscrossed Erdas in their quest to stop the ruthless Conquerors. Only the four of them, supported by the gifts of their legendary spirit animals, have the power to defeat an evil takeover.

While chasing down a lead in the cold North, the heroes arrive at a quiet village where not everything is as it seems. Rooting the truth out of this deceptively beautiful place won't be easy, and the team is already out of time. The Conquerors are right behind them.

SHANNON HALE is the New York Times bestselling author of The Goose Girl, Rapunzel's Revenge, Ever After High, and Newbery Honor winner Princess Academy. Her past pets include rabbits, birds, dogs, cats, lizards, and a snake who broke the world record for longevity. Shannon lives in Utah.
