Cercle

Circle

Multi-award-winning, New York Times best-selling duo Mac Barnett and Jon Klassen deliver the final wry and resonant tale about Triangle, Square, and Circle.

This book is about Circle. This book is also about Circle's friends, Triangle and Square. It is also about a rule that Circle makes, and how she has to rescue Triangle when he breaks that rule. With their usual pitch-perfect pacing and subtle, sharp wit, Mac Barnett and Jon Klassen come full circle in the third and final installment of their clever shapes trilogy.

MAC BARNETT is the New York Times bestselling author of many picture books, including Extra doux and Max et Sam creusent, creusent, creusent . . ., both illustrated by Jon Klassen and both Caldecott Honor Award winners. He is also the author of the bestselling Terrible Two series with Jory John. Mac lives in Berkeley, California.

JON KLASSEN is an animator and Governor General's Award-winning creator of children's books. His book Ce n'est pas mon chapeau won both the American Caldecott Medal and the British Kate Greenway Medal, making Jon the first person to win both awards for the same work. Jon was born in Winnipeg, Manitoba and currently resides in Los Angeles.

★ PRAISE FOR CARRÉ

“ Funny and lightly philosophical, Barnett's story gets an extra punch of hilarity with Klassen's minimalist graphite-and-watercolor artwork. A must for Triangle fans that will leave them wondering how this geometric drama will end. ” ~ Booklist

Chloé et les animaux du refuge

Madeline Finn and the Shelter Dog

Chloé asks her mother for a puppy every single day. Finally, Mom says yes, and Chloé chooses Star, one of the puppies born to Mrs. Durand's dog Bianca. Then Mrs. Durand tells Chloé about animal shelters—a place many other pets come from. After a visit to their local shelter, Chloé has some questions. Does anyone play with the shelter dogs, or snuggle with them, or read to them? Questions lead to answers and ideas, and soon she discovers that there are lots of ways for small people to make a big difference.

Author-illustrator Lisa Papp offers a heartwarming exploration of life in an animal shelter in this inspiring and endearing book for young readers eager to help their communities.

LISA PAPP grew up telling stories. Saved in a notebook full of sketches, her early tales featured her cat and stuffed animals. Today, Lisa is still making up stories and painting pictures, only now, they fill the pages of children's books, including Chloé et sa copine de lecture. She lives in Pennsylvania.

Bonne nuit autour du monde

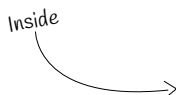

Goodnight, World

Though where they say goodnight may be different (and interesting!) children all over the world have cozy bedtime rituals, and they all fall asleep under the same starry sky.

Bonne nuit autour du monde launches from the final thought in Andrea Beck's bestselling and award-winning picture book Bonne nuit, Canada!, which closes with the line "And goodnight, world."

Cozy, intricate spreads set the scene for bedtime—in a yurt, under the stars, up high in an apartment or rocking on a boat. Bonne nuit autour du monde is a natural progression of the ideas in the original books as kids begin to explore connections and develop the awareness that they are citizens of the world. Non-fiction pages at the back of the book provide more details on the styles of homes featured in each spread.

ANDREA LYNN BECK has published eighteen picture books, including the bestselling Bonne nuit, Canada! and Bonjour, Canada!. She is the creator of the Elliot Moose series and the Pierre le Poof series. Andrea was shortlisted for an Amelia Frances Howard-Gibbon Award for Illustration in 2012 for Pierre le Poof, and in 2013 for Bonne nuit, Canada!. She has also illustrated Buttercup's Lovely Day, which was nominated for a Blue Spruce Award in 2009.

La fabuleuse machine à imagination

The Incredible Freedom Machines

In this beautiful and thought-provoking story, a young girl dreams of having her very own incredible freedom machine—a machine that will allow her to break boundaries, explore the world, and learn about herself. However, it seems the machines are not so easy to come by. Will she have the perseverance to find a freedom machine that is just right for her?

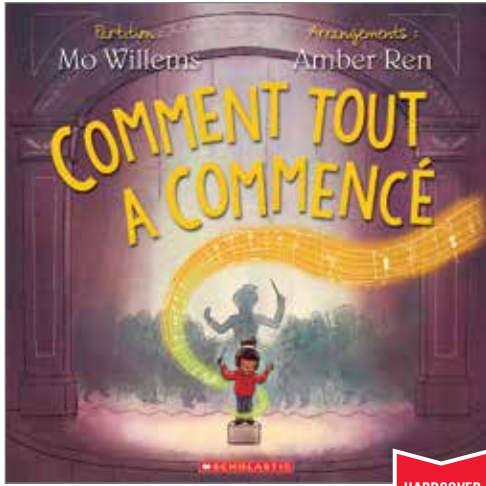

Intricate and striking images by award-winning illustrator Matt Ottley, combined with reflective and thoughtful words from first-time author Kirli Saunders, create a beautiful celebration of the power of books—the ultimate freedom machines that fuel the imagination and break down all barriers.

KIRLI SAUNDERS is a proud Gunai woman with ties to the Yuin, Gundungurra, Gadigal, and Biripi people of Australia. She is the Manager of Poetic Learning and an Aboriginal Cultural Liaison at Red Room Poetry in Sydney, Australia. La fabuleuse machine à imagination is her first book for children.

MATT OTTLEY is a multi-award-winning picture book creator and musician. He was born in the Highlands of Papua New Guinea, and now resides in a little cottage on a rainforest-covered mountain in New South Wales.

Le fil invisible

The Invisible String

Parents, educators, therapists, and social workers alike have declared Le fil invisible the perfect tool for coping with all kinds of separation anxiety, loss, and grief. In this relatable and reassuring contemporary classic, a mother tells her two children that they're all connected by an invisible string. Even though you can't see it with your eyes, you can feel it deep in your heart, and know that you are always connected to the ones you love.

This heartwarming picture book for all ages explores questions about the intangible yet unbreakable connections between us, and opens up deeper conversations about love.

Meet Tia and Léo, the new members of a rather particular stamp club ... or so they think ...

N° 1 : Le navet spatial

On her first day of school, Tia meets Léo, an outspoken and rambunctious student. As they both wind up in the philately club, they quickly find common ground when they notice the school's janitor acting strange. While following him closely, Tia and Léo discover a green, mushtachioed monster from outer space who plans to take over the school... and the world. With the help of the club's (ancient) founding member, Tia and Léo will have to use their intelligence and bravery to thwart the alien's plan and send the creature back to his home planet before it devours the entire student body.

Vacarme de Noël

Sounds like Christmas

Grandma is baking Christmas cookies, so she asks Lincoln and Georgia to decorate the tree. And what a tree it becomes! In addition to the lights, garlands, and balls, the kids compete to add some very special and extremely noisy ornaments, including a talking doll, a chirping bird, the neighbour's dog, and more. What will their grandparents—and Santa—think?

Robert Munsch wrote this story for the kids at a Christmas party at his home in Guelph.

ROBERT MUNSCH is Canada's bestselling author of more than fifty picture books for young readers. His heartwarming and hilarious stories are beloved by children, parents, teachers, and booksellers alike. In 2009, he was inducted into Canada's Walk of Fame. He lives in Guelph, Ontario.

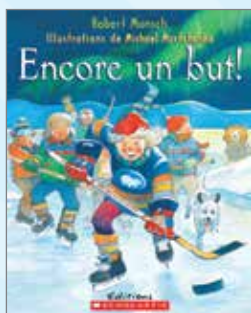

MICHAEL MARTCHENKO'S illustrations are as instantly identifiable and lovable as Robert Munsch's stories. His wild and colourful pictures add depth and even more hilarity to these picture book tales. He received the CBA Children's Illustrator of the Year Libris Award in 2006. He lives in Toronto, Ontario.

Kévin does his best to keep it sparkly like a good unicorn should, but after a clam juice incident sparks a disastrous trip through the park, he finds it's all but impossible to keep smiling. After he shares how he is really feeling, Kévin discovers he is not alone. And that's not just okay—it's amazing!

Bof, Olga's beloved Olgamus, is now a mom! She has a litter of seven adorable babies that look like spring rolls. But the babies aren't just adorable—they're a handful! How can Olga stop them from covering her house in rainbow poop if she's busy making sure they're fed? Can Olga keep it all under control?

Packing in thrice the girl power, hilarious quips, and kooky science facts of the previous books, this third opus is Olga's most wacky adventure yet.

She was also shortlisted for Mr. Christie's Book Award and the Prix jeunesse des libraires du Québec. She has written and illustrated over thirty books for children in both French and English. ★ PRAISE FOR OLGA ET LE MACHIN QUI PUE

“ A visually interesting mix of illustration and story, punctuated by numerous lists, comic panels, and cartoon diagrams and led by a smart female protagonist. A bubble-gum crowd pleaser with wide audience appeal. ”

~ Kirkus Reviews

“ Readers will get lots of laughs out of the steady stream of gross-out jokes, as well as Olga's misanthropic humour, though her attitude toward humans softens slightly by book's end. ”

N° 7 - Stacey est amoureuse

#7: Boy Crazy Stacey

Stacey and Mary Anne are baby-sitting for the Pike family for two weeks at the New Jersey shore. Things are great in Sea City: There's a gorgeous house right on the beach, a boardwalk, plenty of sun and sand . . . and the cutest boy Stacey has ever seen!

Mary Anne thinks that Stacey should leave Scott alone and focus on the Pike kids, but Stacey is in love. Looking for reasons to hang around his lifeguard stand takes up all of her time, which means Mary Anne has to do the job of two baby-sitters. Mary Anne doesn't like it one bit! How can she tell Stacey that Scott just isn't interested without ruining their friendship and breaking Stacey's heart?

Courage

Guts

A true story from Raina Telgemeier, the #1 New York Times bestselling, multiple Eisner Award-winning author of Souris!, Sœurs, Drame, and Fantômes.

Raina wakes up one night with a terrible upset stomach. Her mom has one, too, so it's probably just a bug. Raina eventually returns to school, where she's dealing with the usual highs and lows: friends, not-friends, and classmates who think the school year is just one long gross-out session. It soon becomes clear that Raina's tummy trouble isn't going away . . . and it coincides with her worries about food, school, and changing friendships. What's going on?

Raina Telgemeier once again brings us a thoughtful, charming, and funny true story about growing up and gathering the courage to face—and conquer—her fears.

RAINA TELGEMEIER'S comics have been nominated for the Ignatz, Cybil, Bédélys, and Eisner awards, and have appeared on the web, in magazines, and in various anthologies. She is the author-illustrator of the best-selling graphic novels Souris!, Drame, Sœurs, and Fantômes. Raina lives in San Francisco.

Repartir

Restart

Chase's memory just went out the window. He doesn't remember falling off the roof. He doesn't remember hitting his head. He doesn't remember anything. He wakes up in a hospital room and suddenly has to learn his whole life all over again . . . starting with his own name.

He knows he's Chase. But who is Chase? When he gets back to school, he sees that different kids have very different reactions to his return. Some kids treat him like a hero. Some kids are clearly afraid of him.

Pretty soon, it's not only a question of who Chase is— it's a question of who he was . . . and who he's going to be.

From the #1 bestselling author Gordon Korman, Repartir is the spectacular story of a kid with a messy past who has to figure out what it means to get a clean start.

GORDON KORMAN was born in Montreal. He wrote his first book when he was twelve years old, Collège MacDonald, which was published in 1978, when Gordon was fourteen. The prolific author has written more than sixty books for middle-grade and young adult readers, including the Droit au but series and the eight books in the Swindle series. Gordon now lives with his family in New York.

★ PRAISE

“ In this compelling and sometimes humorous tale of nature and identity, Korman offers an intriguing exploration of the potential for redemption. ”

Little Owl's Snow

A wonderful introduction to the changing of the seasons!
