Dix profs délicieux

Ten Delicious Teachers

What's the worst that could possibly happen when ten tired teachers miss the last bus home from school? Certainly no one would expect them to take a shortcut through the forest, where ten hungry beasts wait for a teacher feast! If only we could warn them, then maybe there'd still be ten delicious teachers...

This hilarious rhyming picture book that counts from ten to one will have readers at the edge of their seats, as they wait to see what happens at the end of a school day unlike any other.

ROSS MONTGOMERY has worked as a pig farmer, a postman, and a primary school teacher, so writing books was the next logical step. His books include Alex, the Dog and the Unopenable Door, The Tornado Chasers, and Perijee & Me.

Ligne de trappe

On the Trapline

When a young boy heads up north to see his Moshom's grandfather's trapline, he doesn't quite know what to expect. His Moshom teaches him that traplines are where people hunt animals and live off the land. As the pair travel around where his Moshom grew up, the boy begins to learn a lot more than he expected. Could life generations ago really have been so much different than it is now? The answer may surprise him.

With soft illustrations and enthralling text, Ligne de trappe is a heartwarming story about intergenerational connection and Cree heritage.

Les aventures de Flora et Ulysse

Flora & Ulysses: The Illuminated Adventures

Holy unanticipated occurrences! A cynic meets an unlikely superhero in a genre-breaking new novel by master storyteller Kate DiCamillo. It begins—as the best superhero stories do—with a tragic accident that has unexpected consequences. The squirrel never saw the vacuum cleaner coming, but self-described cynic Flora, who has read every issue of the comic book Terrible Things Can Happen to You!, is just the right person to step in and save him.

From #1 New York Times bestselling author Kate DiCamillo comes a laugh-out-loud story filled with eccentric, endearing characters and featuring an exciting new format — a novel interspersed with comic-style graphic sequences and full-page illustrations, all rendered in black-and-white by K.G. Campbell.

KATE DICAMILLO is the author of many beloved books for young readers, including La quête de Despereaux, which received a Newbery Medal; Winn-Dixie, which received a Newbery Honor; L'odyssée miraculeuse d'Édouard Toulaine, winner of a Boston Globe — Horn Book Award; L'éléphant du magicien and the best-selling Mercy Watson series. Kate DiCamillo lives in Minneapolis.

K. G. CAMPBELL graduated with a Masters in art history. He worked as an interior designer but he never could stop thinking up stories and pictures to go with them. He kept writing and drawing, until finally somebody noticed how hard he was working and decided to make him an author. He was born in Kenya, raised in Scotland, and now lives in southern California.

Bébé antiraciste

Antiracist Baby

Bébé antiraciste is bred, not born. Bébé antiraciste is raised to make society transform.

Are we taught to be racist or antiracist? Bébé antiraciste says YES. Luckily, there are many steps we can take to make equity a reality. Opening our eyes to all skin colours, talking about race, and challenging polices are just some of the ways we can try to overcome racism. We are all filled with the power to transcend; to not judge a book by its cover but to read it until the end.

This timely picture book filled with pensive illustrations allows parents and caregivers to spark critical conversations about race and racism with children.

Halloween is Grognonstein's favourite day ever. But there are always things that get on his nerves, like when people give out toothbrushes instead of candy, or when someone has the exact same costume as him. All these things are enough to ruin Grognonstein's favourite holiday, until something snaps him out of his bad mood. What or who will show him that he can still make the most of this spooky celebration?

A laugh-out-loud picture book that's perfect for the spooky season!

Le voyage du sapin de Noël

A Christmas Pine

From a tiny seed inside a cone, to a towering tree in the forest, follow the journey of a special pine turned shining Christmas tree. Through wooded roads and across deep seas, the tree makes a long trip to London's Trafalgar Square. There it stands, spreading joy to all the cheery shoppers and Christmas carollers that pass it. But it won't stay forever; next year, a new tree will experience the same magical journey.

This delightful picture book full of melodic rhymes and cheery illustrations is the perfect gift to brighten the holiday season.

La fée scientifique
Fairy Science

Solide, liquide, gazeux

Solid, Liquid, Gassy

Esther the fairy doesn't believe in magic, but rather in science. But her classmates and teacher aren't quite as convinced by her ideas as she had hoped. Can her friends help her explore her discovery about the wild water cycle, or will magic be stronger than science?

Readers who loved the first La fée scientifique book will love this hilarious addition about the science-loving, strong-headed fairy.

This beautiful picture book filled with moving illustrations talks about fear, loss, and strength in the face of adversity.

★ PRAISE

“With spare, ‘packs-a-punch’ text and lush illustrations, this journey of leaving home to begin anew nearly took my breath away.”

~ Tami Charles, New York Times bestselling author of Parce que ta vie compte

“The night wished it was quieter,” reads the first of 12 wishes that tell the story of a family’s journey across the sea to a better life... Each simple statement, accompanied by its heart-rending visual element, takes readers along on this harrowing journey... Backmatter explains how the author’s own family escaped from Vietnam in the 1980s. A superb, beautifully moving collaboration of text and illustration.”

Quand le père Noël était petit...

When Santa Was a Baby

Santa's parents think their little one is absolutely wonderful, even though he has a booming voice instead of a baby's gurgle, loves to stand in front of the freezer, gives his birthday presents away, trains his hamsters to pull a matchbox sleigh...and has an unusual interest in chimneys.

Readers will love Linda Bailey's adorably funny portrait of an oddball kid who fulfills his destiny — and his two very proud parents.

The new board book version of this charming book, complete with shortened text, is perfect for little ones this holiday season.

LINDA BAILEY has written more than twenty books for children in a number of different genres, including the best-selling Stanley-the-dog series, Toads on Toast, and most recently, Si jamais tu avais un dinosaure... Linda has garnered a long list of honours in Canada such as the Ontario Blue Spruce Award, the Atlantic Provinces Hackmatack Award and the Arthur Ellis Award. She lives in Vancouver, BC.

GENEVIÈVE GODBOUT lives in Montreal where she works as a children's book and fashion illustrator. She studied traditional animation in Montreal and at the prestigious Gobelins school in Paris.

★ PRAISE

“ Warmth and softness abound, with each character sporting rosy round cheeks and button-black eyes. The art evokes a vintage style that further strengthens and supports the book's nostalgic appeal. Quand le père Noël était petit... will make a wonderful addition to any holiday-book collection. Sure to spread joy to readers of all ages year after year, much like the jolly old man in red himself. ”

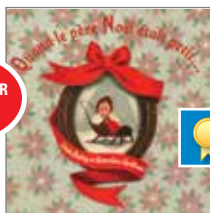

~ Quill & Quire

L'année suivante, Santa reçut de ses parents un magnifique camion de pompier rouge pour son anniversaire. Sa grand-mère lui offrit un cheval à bancule, oncle Ned un casse-tête et tante Mabel un beau pyjama jaune. Santa s'amusa follement à déballer ses cadeaux! Mais il s'amusa plus encore à les remballer (et à les mettre dans un sac).
— Que fait-il demanda sa mère.
— Aucune idée, répondit son père.

Ce qu'ils virent ensuite les stupéfia : leur petit Santa panait distribuer ses cadeaux aux enfants du voisinage.
— A-t-on déjà vu une chose pareille? songea la mère.
— Quel enfant généreux! dit le père, pensif.

Autour de la table

Our Table

Violet loves her family's kitchen table. She loves how people gather around it, singing, laughing, celebrating, and making memories around it. But one day, she notices that the table is empty more often than it is surrounded by people. The less her family uses it, the smaller it becomes, until one day the table vanishes completely! Will Violet be able to work with her family to rebuild the special table they once had?

A tender story about a little girl's yearning to make memories with those who mean the most to her. Readers of all ages can be reminded of the preciousness of quality time and the importance of finding our way back to each other.

Everybody!

Big and small, young and old, we're all unique, but in a way we're all the same. We're all united in the emotions we experience; everybody has moments of joy, sadness, and fear. Most importantly, we all need to be accepted the way we are.

With charming illustrations and simple text, award-winning author Elise Gravel brings us a comforting picture book on the unity of human beings.

ELISE GRAVEL has won a Governor General Award for illustration, two Applied Arts Awards, and a Grafika award. She was also shortlisted for Mr. Christie's Book Award and the Prix jeunesse des libraires du Québec. Outside, Inside

One day, all over the world, everyone from outside went inside and stayed there, waiting. Well, almost everyone. While we waited, some people needed to be outside to keep people safe and help others. As a new illness swept the planet, everyone did their best to keep living their lives in isolation while protecting those they love.

A beautiful and timely picture book on reaching across the void and finding each other during the Covid-19 lockdown. LeUyen Pham's work is tinged with longing, reminiscing, and most of all hope, speaking to readers of all ages.

LEUYEN PHAM worked in animation before turning to children's books. She wrote and illustrated Big Sister, Little Sister and The Bear Who Wasn't There, and is the illustrator of numerous other picture books. Ms. Pham lives in Los Angeles, California, with her husband.

Capitaine Bobette en couleurs 4 : Capitaine Bobette et la machination machiavélique du professeur K.K. Prout

Captain Underpants Full Color #4

Georges and Harold aren't bad kids. They just like to "liven things up" for everybody. Unfortunately, their thoughtful jokes sometimes get them into a LOT of trouble. And when professeur K.K. Pipi Prout becomes their new science teacher... well, Georges and Harold almost cause the entire planet to be taken over by a maniacal, mad-scientist guy in a giant robot suit! Who will stop the perilous plot of Pipi Prout? This looks like a job for Captain Bobette!

Inside Book 2

— J'imagine que jentends des voix, encore une fois, s'inquiète M. Barnicle.
 — Vous devriez peut-être aller consulter un docteur, conseille Georges d'un ton plein de sollicitude.
 — Je ne peux pas, s'exclame M. Barnicle. C'est aujourd'hui qu'on fait un volcan! Tous les enfants grognent de dépit. Les expériences de M. Barnicle sont en général complètement ridicules. Elles ne marchent jamais et sont toujours ennuyantes. Cependant, l'expérience d'aujourd'hui est différente. M. Barnicle a apporté un gros volcan en papier mâché qui n'a pas l'air vrai. Il remplit le volcan du contenu d'une boîte complète de p'tite vache.

Le lendemain, tout semble normal. Personne ne remarque qu'il y a une soucoupe volante sur le toit de l'école. Personne ne lève les yeux et ne dit : « Eh! On dirait qu'il y a un vaisseau spatial sur le toit de l'école! »
 Si quelqu'un l'avait fait, rien de ce qui est arrivé ne serait arrivé et tu ne serais pas calé dans ton fauteuil à lire ce livre. Mais tout cela est bel et bien arrivé.

16

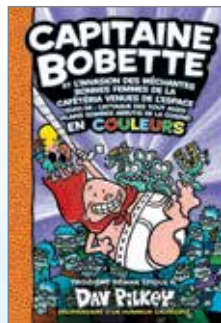

Comme tu le vois, il y a un vaisseau spatial sur le toit. À l'intérieur se trouvent trois des extraterrestres les plus diaboliques, les plus hideux et les plus cruels qui aient jamais atterri sur le toit d'une école primaire.
 Leurs noms? Zork, Klax et Jennifer. Leur mission? Conquérir la planète Terre.

Tilda's life is just as she likes it. That is, until her world turns upside down and things are no longer what they used to be.
