The Power of Story

There's nothing more powerful than a story to connect us, to help us understand ourselves and each other, and to build empathy. The Power of Story initiative highlights books featuring characters and stories from groups whose identities and lived experiences have been suppressed and excluded from mainstream narratives. Sharing these books with young people shows them that everyone's story deserves to be told and will help them understand and expand their world.

Social Justice

The narrative focuses on the characters' activism or attempts to seek justice for their own and/or other communities or oppressed groups

Physical Disability

Featuring characters whose mobility or physical capacity is impacted by the physical and social barriers that create disability

Immigrant Experiences

The experiences of immigrants and emigrants, including their journey from their homelands and adaptations to their newfound homes

Mental Health

Featuring characters with a range of mental illnesses or mental health challenges

Racialized Identities

Portrayals of characters from racial and ethnic groups that have been underrepresented in mainstream storytelling

Indigenous Stories

Featuring First Nations, Inuit, and/or Métis characters or communities, as well as other Indigenous groups from around the world

Read with Pride

Featuring characters who represent any identification within the LGBTQIA2S+ spectrum

Religion and Religious Identity

Representations of religious groups, beliefs, or practices that have been historically marginalized

Neurodivergence

Featuring characters with variations in brain function in relation to what is considered 'typical,' such as autism, dyslexia, and ADHD

Des mots pour mon grand-père

Other Words for Nonno

A girl and her grandfather bond over a shared love of words in this heartwarming story about changing relationships and the special ties between a grandchild and grandparent.

On their weekly walks, Jill and her Nonno love to play with words. "Hummingbird," says Jill. "Sugar-drinker," says Nonno. "Seaplane," says Jill. "I do see a plane!" replies Nonno. But one day, Jill notices Nonno is acting differently. He isn't interested in their usual game and simply repeats what Jill says. When Jill asks her mother what's wrong, her mother says Nonno isn't running out of words, he just can't always find the words he's looking for. Is there anything Jill can do to help?

Des mots pour mon grand-père is about making time for those we love and finding our own way of helping them, even when it seems like there's nothing we can do.

Une surprise merveilleuse

Playdate Surprise

A joyful story of friendship and the simple things we can do to make the world a more accessible place!

When Kayla invites Piper over to play, Kayla can't stop smiling. Even more so when Piper wants to have Kayla come to her house.

But the house has a front step, so Kayla can only come on the weekend when her dad can help her get inside. With new adventures in each other's homes, the girls' friendship blooms.

Piper uses her independent thinking to come up with a surprise for her friend — a surprise that will mean Kayla can come over anytime!

KAREN AUTIO was born in Thunder Bay, Ontario, and grew up creative and horse-loving in nearby Nipigon. Around the age of nine she began writing stories just so that she could illustrate them. When she's not writing, freelance editing, or speaking with students about the research and inspiration behind her books, Karen enjoys canoeing, photographing nature, reading, and travelling. Karen lives in Kelowna, British Columbia.

LAURA WATSON grew up in Peterborough, Ontario, and spent her childhood drawing, painting, and making crafts. Now she creates lighthearted and whimsical illustrations for children's books, magazines, toys, puzzles, and more. She enjoys the outdoors, runs often, and spends as much time as possible at the beach hunting for sea glass. Laura lives and works in Toronto, Ontario.

Le lit en délire!

Bounce!

A new laugh-out-loud tale from Canada's number one storytelling team — Munsch and Martchenko!

Ruth and Barbara are on their way home from school when Ruth falls and scrapes her knee. Luckily an ambulance is driving by, picks them up, and takes them to the hospital.

Once there, the girls are left to wait, and wait...and WAIT. They are so bored that they start looking around and notice that the hospital bed has so many BUTTONS.

What are they all for?

Kids will love this new entry into the world of Munsch, in which a mundane life moment quickly becomes uproarious, and fun can be found everywhere.

ROBERT MUNSCH started telling stories when he was teaching in a daycare, to get the kids to settle down. Now he is Canada's number one author for young readers with more than eighty books in print, including such bestsellers as La princesse dans un sac, On partage tout!, La tempête du siècle, and Love You Forever. Every one of his stories was first told aloud to children — and each one is dedicated to the kid who inspired the story. He is a member of the Order of Canada, has a star on Canada's Walk of Fame, and is a hero to generations of young readers. In 2021 he was nominated for the prestigious international Astrid Lindgren Award. Robert Munsch lives in Guelph, Ontario.

MICHAEL MARTCHENKO has illustrated dozens of books and is most famous for his work with Robert Munsch, including Tes chaussettes sentent la mouffette!, Maquillage à gogo, and On partage tout!. He lives in Burlington, Ontario.

Bienvenue, Carl'corne!

When You Adopt a Pugicorn

In Bienvenue, carlicorne!, author Matilda Rose and illustrator Tim Budgen answer the question: what happens when a princess wishes for a unicorn...but gets a CARLICORNE instead?

Every year, young princesses and princes arrive at Mrs. Paws' Haven for Magical Pets to pick a perfect unicorn pet. But this year Princess Ava arrived too late. There are no unicorns left...only a carlicorne! He's short and hairy. He can't sit still or gallop gracefully — and he certainly can't leap over rainbows.

Can a carlicorne ever be a princess's best friend?

MATILDA ROSE is the author of the When You Adopt series, which includes Carl'corne, Pandarina, and more adventures set in a fairy tale world featuring different magical pets. With important messages about sharing, kindness, trying your best, and being yourself, the When You Adopt books combine sparkle, fun, and heart. Rose lives in London, England.

TIM BUDGEN is a freelance illustrator and art teacher. He's illustrated the When You Adopt series, the Lizzie and Lucky series by Megan Rix, 20 Dinosaurs at Bedtime by Mark Sperring, and more amazing children's books. He lives by the sea on Hayling Island, England.

★ PRAISE

" Digital illustrations by Budgen present dynamic, animation-style characters against a twinkly atmosphere, complementing Rose's simple message that encourages trying new things and accepting differences. "

Les aventures de Frisson : N° 4 - Frisson l'écureuil a la frousse

Scaredy Squirrel Scared Silly

Frisson can't wait for Halloween, with its cute decorations, cheerful music...and NOTHING spooky. This funny story about getting ready for Halloween and overcoming your fears is perfect for fans of Les aventures de Narval et Gelato.

Being scared is nothing new to Frisson in his fourth adventure. That's why he's fully prepared for Halloween: bright lighting? Check. Adorable pumpkin décor? Check. Costumes? You bet. Ghosts, vampires, and monsters? That's a big negative. And no trick-or-treating; Frisson doesn't want to risk cracking a tooth! But with some gentle support and encouragement from his friends, Frisson learns he can still have a good time and overcome his fears...and maybe even get a little spooky! (But just a little.)

The author-illustrator MÉLANIE WATT, born in Trois-Rivières, has won prestigious awards for her work, including the Ruth and Sylvia Schwartz Children's Book Award, the Blue Spruce Award, and the Amelia Frances Howard-Gibbon Illustrator's Award, all for her series Frisson l'écureuil. La citrouille qui a peur du noir

The Pumpkin Who Was Afraid of the Dark

A sweetly spooky Halloween story about a little pumpkin with big fears, by a bestselling picture book duo!

The way every pumpkin is meant to behave is fearless and feisty and spooky and brave. It's what every pumpkin is brought up to do... apart from the littlest pumpkin, named Boo. Boo does NOT like Halloween. She isn't spooky, she's small and sweet. And she does NOT like trick-or-treating. Why? Because she's afraid of the dark. So, when Halloween comes around Boo is especially worried. All the noise, and scary costumes, and people running around in the dark... Boo does not like it one bit! But when she meets a little boy who also shares his fears, Boo realises that perhaps Halloween — and the dark — aren't quite as scary as she thought. And is Boo ready to shine? You bet she is!

Children will love this brilliantly fun picture book — especially those who find Halloween a little bit too spooky!

MICHELLE ROBINSON is the award-winning author of There's a Lion in My Cornflakes, How to Wash a Woolly Mammoth, Yak Yuk, and Bear Boar, among others. Michelle lives in Frome, England.

MIKE BYRNE grew up near Liverpool, UK, and then moved to London to work as an illustrator by day and a crayon-wielding crime fighter by night. He now lives with his wife and two cats in the countryside. He spends his days doodling and creating children's books fueled only by tea and cookies.

- Best friends (the tightest)
- Cat owners (Mister Boo approves...of Cléo)
- And now bandmates (only the gnarliest!), writers (watch out Hemingway!), filmmakers (auteurs), artists (the list goes on?!)...

These two know how to keep spirits high and the good times rolling! In their first-ever second book, join the most adorable apparitions this way of the afterlife through ten gut-busting creative farces, including flexing their storytelling muscles with ghost stories, song-writing, and directing their first film.

As a child, JONATHAN STUTZMAN loved books and comic books. When he grew up, he became an award-winning filmmaker and picture book author. Jonathan lives in Pennsylvania with his wife, illustrator Heather Fox, and their French bulldog, Sir Hugo.

Les aventures de Narval et Gelato

Narwhal and Jelly

Narwhal is a happy-go-lucky narwhal. Jelly is a no-nonsense jellyfish. The two might not have a lot in common, but they do love waffles, parties and adventures. Join Narwhal and Jelly as they discover the whole wide ocean together.

N° 8 - Une Narvhalloween terrifiante

#8: A Super Scary Narvhalloween

In the hilarious eighth book of this blockbuster graphic novel series, Narval and Gelato celebrate the spookiest time of the year — Halloween — with a super twist!

Dive into three new stories that are sure to frighten and delight! Narval loves Halloween — it's a great excuse to dress up in a spooky and silly costume, like a ghost, a mermaid, a banana, or maybe even Marlow the Mustachioed Moose. It's a skeleTON of fun! Gelato isn't dressing up, though — he's a little scared of this time of year, and would prefer to hunker down in a hidey-hole until Halloween is over. But when a scary sea monster makes an appearance and swallows Narval (gulp!), can Gelato, with the help of some super friends, pluck up the courage to save his best bud?

BEN CLANTON is the creator of the graphic novel series Les aventures de Narval et Gelato and Les aventures de Patate Pourrie. His picture books include Patate pourrie : Le légume le plus mignon du monde! and Patate pourrie : Le légume le plus courageux du monde!. Ben lives in Seattle, Washington.

Haunted Canada Graphic Novel

Joel A. Sutherland's terrifying tales are adapted into graphic novels in this new series sure to send a shiver down readers' spines.

N° 1 - Quatre histoires terrifiantes

Volume 1: Four Terrifying Tales

For over twenty years, kids across Canada have delighted in the spooky stories of the Lieux hantés series!

And now, for the first time, four of these tales from award-winning author Joel A. Sutherland have been adapted into chilling graphic novellas. Each story is brought to ghastly life by a different illustrator, and brought together in one terrifying volume.

In this first collection, horror lovers will read about:

A corpse that haunts a crossroads...

A creepy doll with a mind of its own...

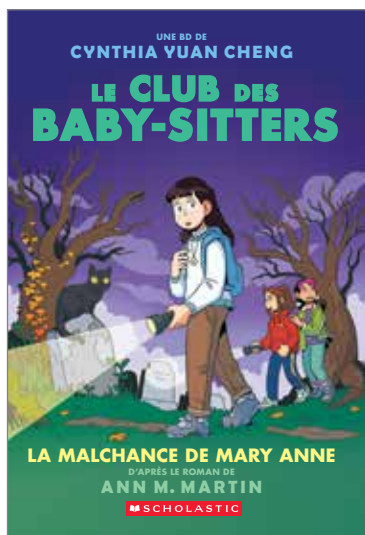

An island that is no vacation destination...

A neighbour with a scary reputation...

Perfect for those who love graphic novels and existing fans of the original series, these four stories have it all: creepy Canadian settings, hair-raising history, and super-scary storytelling. Illustrated in full colour, these blood-curdling tales are sure to keep any reader turning the pages — and awake at night.

JOEL A. SUTHERLAND is the Silver Birch and Hackmatack Award-winning author of numerous Lieux hantés books and the Red Maple Award Honour Book La maison abandonnée. His middle-grade fiction series, Hanté, has been praised by Goosebumps author R.L. Stine. Joel lives with his family in southeastern Ontario, where he works as a library manager and is always on the lookout for ghosts.

LE SANG! Plus qu'une boisson pour les vampires

BLOOD! Not Just a Vampire Drink

From Stacy McAnulty, author of the entertaining and informative STEM picture books Moi, la Terre : Mes premiers milliards d'années and Moi, la planète Mars : Terriens bienvenus, comes an exciting picture book focused on the science of the body.

Welcome to I Don't Vant to Suck Your Blood Smoothie Shop, where all products are 100% blood-free!

That's good news for humans, but bad news for a thirsty vampire who just wants a pint of O-positive. With a little help from a friend, he'll realize that blood isn't a beverage. Humans need it! Blood delivers oxygen and nutrients, helps fight off infections, and so much more. So grab LE SANG! Plus qu'une boisson pour les vampires and a pineapple-spinach smoothie, and find out why blood is such a fabulous fluid.

STACY MCANULTY is the author of many books for children, notably the nonfiction picture book series Our Universe, which includes titles Moi, la Terre, Moi, le Soleil, Moi, la planète Mars, Moi, la Lune, and Moi, l'océan among others. Stacy lives in North Carolina.

SHAWNA J. C. TENNEY wonders if having type A+ blood helps her to make A+ artwork (hey, it's possible! Okay, probably not). When she isn't draining the life out of chocolate bars, she can be found in her studio creating stories like her author-illustrated picture books, Pirates Don't Dance! and Brunhilda's Backwards Day. She lives in Utah.

Les amis qui fêtaient Noël

One Wild Christmas

Best friends the bear, the moose, and the beaver are back in board book format with a Christmas tale!

Busy getting ready for Christmas, they have forgotten the most important decoration of all — the Christmas tree! The friends find a pine tree that is just the right size, with soft needles and a wonderful scent — it's perfect! But just as the beaver is about to chop it down, the bear stops him. He can't allow this tree to be harmed, it is simply too beautiful! But the moose and the beaver disagree. Is there a way they can have a perfect Christmas — without chopping down the perfect tree?

This funny romp is, at its heart, a contemporary tale about the importance of family, friends, and traditions while promoting the joys of nature.

NICHOLAS OLDLAND enjoyed success as a commercial artist before taking up the role of creative director at Hatley and Little Blue House, popular apparel companies he runs with his brothers. He is the author-illustrator of the Life in the Wild series and 10, 9, 8 dinosaures. Nicholas lives in Toronto, Ontario.

C'est mon cerveau!

It's My Brain!

Each of us has a brain, but all of our brains are unique! In this companion book to the wildly successful C'est mon corps! and Tout le monde!, beloved author-illustrator Elise Gravel takes us on a journey into our brains and the incredible things they allow us to do, like learn new things, feel emotions, and communicate with others. And that's on top of things like breathing and using our senses! All of our brains think differently, and neurodivergence and other brain-related differences are common and should be respected.

Bringing interesting facts and compassion together with her trademark humour and style, Elise Gravel reminds us that each brain, like each person, is unique and special.

ELISE GRAVEL has won a Governor General's Award for illustration, the Vicky Metcalf Award for Literature for Young People, the Rights and Freedoms Award from the Quebec Commission des droits de la personne et des droits de la jeunesse, two Applied Arts Awards and a Grafika Award. She also was short-listed for Mr. Christie's Book Award. She has written and illustrated over thirty books for children in both French and English including Pas moi, Tout le monde!, and C'est mon corps!. Elise lives in Montreal, Quebec.

Précieux mnoomin

The Gift of Mnoomin

In this bilingual book, an Anishinaabe child explores the story of a precious mnoomin seed and the circle of life mnoomin sustains.

Written in Anishinaabemowin and French, the story opens at harvest time. A child holds a mnoomin seed and imagines all the life that made a single seed possible — Mayfly, Pike, Muskrat, Eagle, and Moose all had a part to play in bringing the seed into being. What will happen if the seed sprouts? Underwater leaves will shelter young fish, shoots will protect ducklings, stalks will feed larvae, in turn providing food for bats...until finally mnoomin will be ready to harvest again.

We follow the child and family through a harvest day as they make offerings of tobacco, then gently knock ripe seeds into their canoe. On shore, they prepare the seeds, cook up a feast, and gratefully plant some seeds they'd set aside.

This beautifully written and illustrated story reveals the cultural and ecological importance of mnoomin. As the author's note explains, many Anishinaabeg agree that "wild rice" is an inaccurate term for this plant relation, since part of the harvest is sown every year to help sustain human and non-human beings.

BRITTANY LUBY, of Anishinaabe descent, was raised on Treaty #3 lands in what is currently known as northwestern Ontario. She is an associate professor of history at the University of Guelph who seeks to stimulate public discussion of Indigenous issues through her work. Her picture books include the award-winning Mii maanda ezhi-gkendmaanh / La Terre me parle : Un livre sur les saisons, illustrated by Joshua Mangeshig Pawis-Steckley. Brittany lives on territories cared for under the Dish with One Spoon Covenant.

JOSHUA MANGESHIG PAWIS-STECKLEY is an Ojibwe woodland artist and a member of Wasauksing First Nation. His art aims to reclaim and promote traditional Ojibwe stories and teachings in a contemporary woodland style. He has held several solo art exhibitions across Turtle Island. Joshua has illustrated the award-winning picture book Mii maanda ezhi-gkendmaanh / La Terre me parle : Un livre sur les saisons by Brittany Luby, among others. He spends his time living both in Vancouver and Wasauksing First Nation.

Nous sommes Métis

Métis Like Me

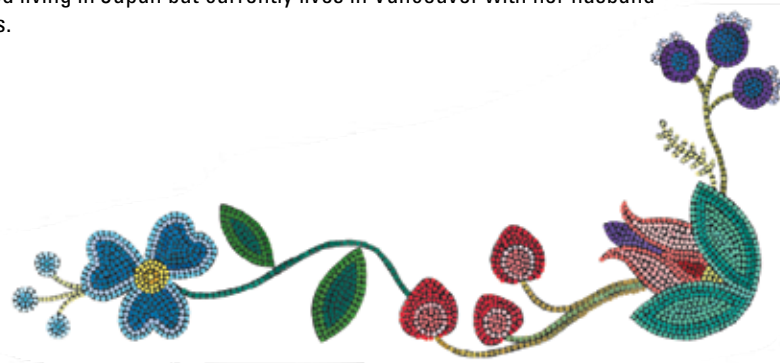

Whether or not you're Métis, there's so much to experience and learn about this amazing Indigenous culture. Take a picture book journey into Métis crafts, music, and cooking with friends who love to share.

Are you Métis like me? A group of children of Métis descent share and explore all the ways they celebrate and experience their heritage — enjoying traditional foods like bannock bread and Saskatoon berries; crafting with beads; sharing stories, dance, music, and songs. Each child shares a different way they enjoy honouring their backgrounds and weaving parts of the rich tapestry that makes up Métis culture. One child, though, has grown up disconnected from their history and can't join in with the others in the same way. But they soon see it's never too late to learn, celebrate, or become a part of a community in which Métis and non-Métis alike can discover the richness of an often-overlooked culture.

This rhythmic, jubilant book will encourage young readers of all backgrounds to celebrate their own heritage and learn more about Métis history. It also contains back matter including an author's note, recipe, and dictionary to further inspire.

TASHA HILDERMAN graduated with a Bachelor of Arts in English from the University of Saskatchewan. Two Pieces of Chocolate

In 1945, young Francine and her maman are sent to the Bergen-Belsen Nazi prison camp, where life is gray and hopeless. Determined to lift Francine's spirits, Maman shares a secret: hidden inside her bag are two pieces of chocolate. They're the first sweets Francine has seen in years, but Maman tells her not to eat them. "One day, when I see that you really need them... that's when I'll give the chocolates to you."

When Francine meets Hélène, a fellow prisoner, she learns another secret: Hélène is pregnant. But there is very little food in the camp, and even less hope. Hélène and her baby are in grave danger.

Remembering the chocolates, Francine realizes she may be able to help.

Francine's act of kindness will make ripples in their lives for decades to come.

Bye bye, père Noël!

Santa's Gotta Go

We all know that Santa Claus is one cool dude! But how is he as a houseguest? Find out in this hilarious picture book by bestselling author Derrick Barnes!

The number one thing on Monte and Mabel's Christmas wish list is the chance to hang out with Santa Claus. So when his sleigh breaks down in their yard as he's finishing up his last delivery, they couldn't be more delighted — Santa's gonna stay with them while he waits for spare parts to be delivered! It's a dream come true... or is it? It turns out Santa doesn't have a lot of experience being a houseguest, and likes to rock out late at night and swigs spaghetti sauce from the jar. But when he messes with Dad's motorcycle and Mabel's computer tablet, he's gone a step too far. The whole family agrees — Santa's gotta go! But how on earth do you kick out Santa Claus?

Readers will get a kick out of this hilarious holiday tale by New York Times bestselling author Derrick Barnes, with its funny reminder to be careful what you wish for and to remember that sharing the holiday spirit can take a lot of goodwill.

Les pros (pas tant que ça!)

From beloved Quebecoise author Valérie Fontaine comes the first book in a new middle-grade series. Milo, Inès, Romy, Adam, and Léon are students in Mme Clémence's class. They weren't destined to be friends, but when Mme Clémence decides that her students will work on an entrepreneurship project, they find themselves having to help each other with their individual projects.

N° 1 - La gaffe de Milo

Milo has broken his grandmother's precious vase that she's cherished for years. Panicking, Milo decides to stash away all the pieces, hoping that no one will notice. At the same time, his teacher assigns his class a project: raise money for a cause close to their hearts. Milo decides that he'll use the project as a cover to collect money to buy a vase that's identical to the one he broke, keeping the entire thing a secret.

Between his father who thinks he's raising money for new soccer equipment, his sister who discovers his secret and threatens to tell on him, and his entrepreneurship endeavours that are getting more complicated than anticipated, will Milo be able to replace the vase he broke before anyone notices and avoid breaking his grandmother's heart?

VALÉRIE FONTAINE is an author-teacher-mother. Always imagining, she writes and takes notes from morning to night. We don't know if she invents funny stories while she dances and cooks, but we do know that she eats books for dinner.

CONCLUSION
SERIES!

Faire des amis

Making Friends

A middle-grade graphic novel about a girl who tries to use a magic sketchbook to help her adjust to school.

N° 4 - C'est parti pour la vie!

#4: Together Forever

Kristen Gudsnuuk takes readers on a magical adventure about friendship in this fourth and final installment of her imaginative Faire des amis series.

No magic. No sketchbook. No friends. Again?!

Dany's magical sketchbook has steered most of her middle-school life so far — it even helped create her best friend, Madison. But now that the sketchbook is gone, and Madison with it, Dany's back to being a loner. Then one day, Dany tunes in to the new hit TV show My Magical Best Friend, and it's starring her magical best friend, Madison! The show is clearly based on Dany's life, and she watches it regularly with a mix of horror and fascination. But lately there's something else about the show that's captured her attention: Madison seems to be dropping hints for Dany to come rescue her. With no magical sketchbook at her fingertips, can Dany find a way to save her best friend?

KRISTEN GUDSNUK is the creator of Faire des amis, an IndieBound bestseller and YALSA Great Graphic Novels for Teens selection. The sequel, Faire des amis : N° 2 - Le clone parfait, was included in the 2020 ILA Children's Choices reading list. She's also the writer and artist of the Minecraft comic series Wither Without You, and her Henchgirl comic series is being developed into a TV show. Kristen was born in suburbia, didn't go to art school, and now lives in Queens, New York.

★ PRAISE FOR FAIRE DES AMIS:

" Faire des amis is ... perfect for any younger readers' graphic novel collection. "

~ School Library Journal, starred review

" This charming graphic novel features full-colour, manga-inspired illustrations, and a breezy plot that blends wish fulfillment and fantasy with an approachable and contemporary storyline. With a broad brush, Gudsnuuk hits many of the angst-y issues of middle school, including popularity, bullying, family relationships, body image, and fandom, creating appeal for a large swath of readers... A nifty pastiche of middle school matters. "

Unico

Unico

Unico tells the incredible story of a young unicorn who, after enraging the evil goddess Venus, is banished from the heavens and forgets all he once was. Saved from oblivion by the kindhearted West Wind, Unico continues to help others, before having to escape Venus again and begin a new adventure.

N° 1 - Le commencement

#1 : The Awakening

An adventure across space and time awaits!

In this first manga, Unico awakes in a mysterious land and is befriended by a resourceful watch cat, Chloe, who feels protective of the young unicorn. When they find themselves near a small village in the forest, they take refuge with a kindly, but helpless, old woman. To take care of her, Chloe begs Unico to turn her into a human girl, but that act of kindness has unforeseen consequences: Unico's love has awakened Venus and her minion, Byron, who want to destroy them both!

Conceived anew by author Samuel Sattin and artist team Gurihiru, and developed in collaboration with Tezuka Productions, Unico : N° 1 - Le commencement is a groundbreaking reboot of a beloved story by Astro Boy creator Osamu Tezuka, the "God of Manga." With striking full-colour artwork and reading left to right in the Western comics style, Unico is a brilliant manga series featuring storytelling at its best. Join Unico on an unforgettable journey!

Pas d'école!

Snow Day

There's nothing like a snow day!

Looking out on their newly frosted windows one morning, two young brothers watch millions of pure white snowflakes floating down. Everything is covered in a thick blanket of snow. Will it be deep enough? Soon come the two magical words they've been waiting for: SNOW DAY!

They scramble into their coats and boots — it's time for hockey and tag and building a snow fort. Then, with stinging faces and frozen toes, it's time for a hot-chocolate break and drying out wet mittens. Toasty warm once again, they head back outside for more fun in the snow. When at last it's time for sleep, they fall into bed, exhausted.

Outside, the snow comes drifting down again... Will they awake to yet another snow day?

Werner Zimmermann's playful text, coupled with beautifully crafted watercolour illustrations, captures all the excitement and wonder of a snow day.

WERNER ZIMMERMANN is a bestselling children's book illustrator whose works include Un porc-épic dans un sapin and its sequels, At the Pond, the Farmer Joe series, Pas d'école!, Henny Penny, Pippin the Christmas Pig, and In My Backyard.
